

Shabat Towrah Study - Being Observant and Circumspect | Sakal Year 5990 Yah 16 February 2024

Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ( )? A ___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three dots ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MaryKris.

I apologize for not including the news portion. I had a program crash and scrambled to retrieve what I could. Because of a medical appointment today, I am not able to retype the news segment. Thanks for understanding.

14:26 I'm going to begin in Quran, Second Surah. It is the first one after the migration of shame, to kind of put things in perspective. There were 90 suras revealed in what was Petra. Mecca didn't even exist at the time and of those there isn't any insight worth sharing. They're full of lies, terribly plagiarized, grossly immoral, tremendously sadistic, and demonic right from the opening surah to the last one in Petra.

15:09 We finally get to Yathrib, which is a Jewish Community, Muhammad and his gang of misfits are broke. They won't work and are living off loans provided to them by Jews and are living in Jewish homes. Muhammad wants to be a big shot and a warlord, a Godfather if you will, and the first thing he did was send out 12 different terrorist raids to rob caravans, civilian enterprises of his former neighbors and extended family members, the Quraish.

15:43 So, we are now in are now in Yahtrib and the second surah is revealed and the first 100 or so verses of the second surah are purely antisemitic. This is Allah, al-Lahu, al-Lahi or al-Laha depending on where you read it, wants to claim Jews as his own and yet wants to kill them all the same. He has to claim them as how own to be able to claim the Torah as his, which he claims that he revealed and confirmed by his Quran. The he wants to wipe Jews out to the last and justify killing them, so he then demeans them in the next breath. It's kind of a whiplash experience to read the second surah; you don't know what side of al-Lahi al-Lahu you're going to hear next.

16:40 Quran 002.016 "Those, the ones who bought (as in purchasing) straying for the guidance, so not profited their commerce and they were not guided."

16:56 If you are a normal sane person and somebody was to read that to you, you would say, "Say what?" Understand now I have translated 74 surahs from beginning to end, taking advantage of using Interlinears to be very exacting on them, and there's about 100 of the 114 that I have dealt with it to a significant extent, and so I speak "Allah Who" and actually know what he's saying here. Because he repeats himself so often, after a while, you learn to speak Allah Who. This is Allah Who's first attempt. I say "Allah Who" because Allah is never written anywhere in the Quran; that's a surprise, I'm sure, to most people. We have al-Lahi, al-Lahu, and al-Laha, il-Lahi, as well as Rabbi in the various forms, rabbikum, and then we have Rahman. Rahman was the god of the Arabs who converted to Judaism of the Sabaeans whose poetry was plagiarized to become the opening surahs of the Quran. The rabbis sold Muhammad a bill of goods when they said that Rabbi was the proper word for Lord. So, the word for Lord throughout the Quran is Rabbi. Al-Lahi, al-Lahu, and al-Laha, al means "the" for him or "to her." There's no reference to Ilah, the Arabic word for God, so this is a lie that it means "the God." No. That's not what it says. It is la (as in a title) "to him, for him or to her." That's just the reality of it. Sorry, Muslims, but this idea that you have but one God and the God is Allah is inconsistent with the Quran. To make that claim you you have to disavow the Quran.

19:20 Anyway, this was al-Lahu's first attempt at condemning Jews for selling (not giving) their oral traditions either through their Torah or Talmud to Muhammad. He is inferring that his bastardized accounts that filled the Quran (he's got all sorts of accounts of Adam, Noach, Moseh, hilarious ones of Solomon and the Hoopoe (talking) bird, talking ants, bird armies and how they come to terrorize the Queen of Sheba who finally converts to Islam because she slipped on a glass floor and showed ankle). You might say, "That's the most insane thing I've ever heard in my life," but it doesn't even come close to the most insane things in the Quran, but that's actually from the Talmud. So, the entire story was pilfered from the Talmud, and that's just the nature of the Quran. It has nothing that would cause anybody to think this could possibly be a God except where it plagiarizes, misappropriates stories from the Torah and Talmud, corrupts those names, and then takes those characters out of the places where they were, puts them into Petra and makes them all junior Muhammads facing Muhammad's problems with Allah being the big Honker that revealed his scriptures to them.

21:07 You could not have two books more different than the Quran and the Towrah. The Towrah, of course, is brilliant and filled with prophecy; its God is Yahowah. The Quran has a variety of gods and is easily the most dimwitted book ever written.

21:27 So what al-Lahu is claiming here is that the Jews sold their scriptural stories to Muhammad. Now that's just embarrassing by itself, and there's like 40 of these references between the Quran and the Hadith blaming the rabbis for doing this. Why would you say that? What I would say is, "My God doesn't know these stories, so I had to buy them, and now he's all pissed off that the Jews actually want to be paid for them, but he's even more pissed off because (I guess he's miffed because then he claims that) the Jews changed the Torah so that the version that is in the Quran is the correct one, the one that the rabbis read, and that the actual Torah once said the exact same thing as the Quran which is that al-Lahu, was God and that Moseh, Noach, and 'Adam were nincompoops and total dunderheads, and Dowd and Solomon worshiped Allah and had armies of birds, and Alexander the Great was an astronaut." So, that's what he claims the Torah actually said. And then he says, "Now the Jews in Yathrib somehow found every copy of the Torah in the world." (Which means also the Septuagint, the Codices Vaticanus and Sinaiticus, they would have had to find copies of the Masoretic text, all copies of the Dead Sea Scrolls and then throw them all away because, well, they read just like the Quran and then rewrite every single word of them, date them back so they looked like they came from the right period, and then bury them all. That's what you have to believe to go with the al-Lahu story, unless you're just going to play religion and be stupid.

23:48 This account is fairly deadly. Allah here is inferring that his bastardized accounts (the ones he twisted to make his amoral behavior look divine), are true guidance while the originals are completely erroneous. Now this is deadly for Judaism and Islam. For Judaism because rabbis sought to profit by selling a psychopath Talmud readings that would later plague all Israel. For Islam because Allah didn't know enough about these stories and evidently is illiterate and had to have rabbis recite them.

24:38 Quran 002.017 "Their example (is) like example of the one who kindled a fire then when it illuminated what (was) around him, al-Lahu took away their light and left them in darknesses not they see. Deaf, dumb and blind so they will not return.

24:50 Quran 002.019 Or like a rainstorm from the sky in it darknesses and thunder and lightning. They put their fingers in their ears from the thunderclaps (in) fear (of) death. And al-Lahu the One Who encompasses the disbelievers.

25:16 Quran 002.020 The lightning almost snatches away their sight. Whenever it flashes for them, they walk in it and when it darkens on them, they stand. And if al-Lahu had willed, He would certainly have taken away their hearing and their sight. Lo! Verily, al-Laha on every thing All-Powerful."

25:35 I hear you smirking back there. You say it can't be that stupid. It is. This is my commentary:

25:43 If the Jews are to be credited with producing their own enlightenment, then Allah cannot claim to have inspired the Towrah. And if Allah took away the light Jews had kindled, Allah cannot claim to be the inspiration behind the Prophets and Psalms which Jews wrote.

25:59 If Allah wants Muslims to believe that he blinded Jews, then he cannot claim that they have read about Muhammad in their Torah, which he does incessantly. If he had made them dumb, then they could not be reciting Talmud stories that he just criticized them for selling. Moreover, Jews cannot return to where they have never been.

26:25 Going beyond that, the Snake is really inept at metaphors. Jews cannot have been made deaf or blind if they can see the lightning and hear the thunder. And if the Serpent rendered them unhearing, there would be no reason for placing fingers in their ears. Moreover, even puppy dogs and autistic children are not scared to death by a clap of thunder. Dumber still, by speaking of himself in third person encompassing these enterprising Jews following the terrorizing thunder, Allah become a run-of-the-mill storm god. And as if not even listening to his own diatribe, after saying that he had made the Jews deaf and blind, he claims that he could certainly have taken away their hearing and sight because he is all powerful on all things.

27:17 The reason we are returning to this is that our mission is to save Yisra'el. The Day of Reconciliations is fast approaching; it's less than 10 years away and Yahowah and Dowd are coming back for Yahuwdym and Yisra'elites, and Muslims want to annihilate them from the river to the sea. They have wanted to annihilate them since Muhammad created this stupid religion. So, it is imperative that we equip Yisra'elites with the truth about Islam so they know who attacked them, who mutilated, raped and murdered them. It's essential that they know this; this is an integral part of our mission and at the same time to share the truth from Yahowah and what He is offering them as He revealed it through His prophets and particularly through His Son, Dowd. So, this is just essential to our mission. It is the reason that I was called to do this, it is the reason that 22 years ago the first thing Yahowah asked is, "I want you to expose and condemn Islam," so that we were in a position and prepared to do this for Israel and Jews at this time.

28:45 The fact is that I have been immersed in 1,900 pages into the rewrites of the moronic drivel of the Quran so long, and we have endured so many dehumanizing, dimwitted, and demonic diatribes that we all are at risk of becoming desensitized to this grossly inappropriate and inane recital. What we are reading is so pathetic, so far beneath the dignity and aptitude of God, and so inept, we must occasionally step back and contemplate what is occurring and why.

29:31 Six millennia ago, the clever cherub | Karuwb who was degraded to a reptilian serpent, appeared adroit in the way he beguiled Chawah. He was so adept in misrepresenting God, Yahowah acknowledged him as being particularly conniving. But that is clearly no longer the case. There is nothing clever about the Quran.

30:08 My initial assessment was that Satan was simply playing to his audience, since the Arabs who were attracted to Muhammad were particularly ignorant, irrational, illiterate, and immoral. For these malcontents, and at this moment in time, it was enough to entice and control a sufficient number of terrorists to force others into submission. But why did the spell that was cast endure and spill out of Arabia? When it is scrutinized, the Quran is so obviously deficient and demeaning, it should not have survived to torment anyone today.

30:55 In trying to ascertain how we came to this deplorable place we have to set aside the cherub's encounter with Chawah. Long ago, he cleverly played to her passions and expertly misappropriated and misrepresented Yahowah's instructions. But then, he was working alone, not through a Rasuli | messenger or apostle, and had not yet been degraded by Yahowah. Yahowah who is the one who said, "Okay. You know you were a karuwb, this beautiful being of light and now you're a snake."

31:32 We hear nothing of Satan for millennia, even though his presence is felt among the Nephilim, in Babel, and then in Sodom. But he does not become a player again until King Sha'uwl is demon-possessed. As a result, the people's choice of leaders not only reinterprets the Towrah to fit his situation, he turns on Dowd, who is the hero of God's story.

32:11 Our next acknowledgment of Satan's existence is in Yasha'yah | Isaiah 14, where we are told of the Lord's ambition to be worshiped as if he were the Most-High God. He does not want to be known as the AdverSary; he wants to be known as the one and only God. This essay on the Devil speaks of his Babylonian origins, arrogance, and duplicity. He is cited in the chapter, and while his claims are exceedingly narcissistic and self-indulgent, striking similar notes to what we are reading in the Quran, but at the time, his rhetoric was considerably more lucid.

32:56 A few hundred years thereafter, Satan makes his reappearance as the Lord God in the Book of Ezekiel. He suddenly becomes far more dramatic, not only in his own over-the-top depictions of himself, but also of his monstrous edifices and glorified plans. He is particularly demeaning and demonic, derogatory and deadly, even anti-Semitic.

33:34 Communicating through his enslaved (which is a theme Allah plays off) non-prophet, Ezekiel, the writing quality, while deplorable, isn't nearly as deficient as the Quran. And since Ezekiel is nothing more than Satan's stooge, the inference is that we are listening directly to the Devil speak of annihilating Jews and of his Resurrection Day. The ghoulish event in which blood is consumed along with the bodies of men, (me in particular; I get to be one of them) I have dubbed the Feast of the Beast. While much better written, the parallels between Ezekiel and the Quran are considerable.

34:25 Since religious Jews adore Ezekiel, it appears that Satan was appealing to their shared desire to lord over Yahowah and to write their own script. Affirming this, not only are we introduced to the Zohar (which is central to Judaism) in Ezekiel, Kabbalah draws its inspiration from Satan's first attempt at playing God. So, through Ezekiel, the Lord of Babel's appeal is to Jews who think they are superior to everyone and everything, including Yahowah and His Towrah.

35:17 Halal ben Shachar's approach changes appreciably when he possesses Sha'uwl, the self-pronounced murderous religious zealot on the road to Damascus. As the first man on record to call himself a rabbi, (The first acknowledgment of a person in writing to call himself a Rabbi was Sha'uwl | Paul during the early first century CE) Sha'uwl, who became Paul, changed his name as was the case with Abu al-Qasim becoming Muhammad. (Abu al-Qasim means that he likes to play with satanic, divination, and other occult pastimes.) While they were both non-prophets serving as Satan's Apostles, Paul was a student of the Towrah and Prophets while Muhammad was illiterate and ignorant. Therefore, Paul's fourteen letters, while poorly written and filled with all manner of contradictions and logical fallacies, are still infinitely superior to the text of the Quran.

36:34 I used to mock Paul's writing style. His writing is horrific and brilliant in his misappropriations of the Towrah and Prophets to support his view while they're all filled with contradictions and misappropriations. Nonetheless, they are vastly superior to what we read the Quran.

36:59 Since Abu al-Qasim | the man now known as Muhammad, and Sha'awl | Paul admitted to being demon-possessed while claiming to speak for the God of the Towrah, who they were constantly contradicting, we are left to wonder whether the vastly superior rantings in the Christian New Testament were a product of the intellect of the accomplice and his intended audience. Said another way: was the degraded Serpent playing to arrogant and enlightened Greeks and Romans through Paul and to the opposite of that through Muhammad – to men so deprived of cognitive function they were willing to believe these recitals, even to be enslaved by them, if it led to booty? Or were the underlying texts of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam written as they were because Satan was enabled and constrained by the intellect and literacy of his advocate?

38:05 Recognizing that no one is capable of credibly playing God (That's a tough role. If you're a snake you ought not do it because you don't have the wherewithal to play God), the transition in rhetoric from the brilliance found in the books attributed to Moseh, Dowd, and Yasha'yah and to the lack of prophecy and competency found in Ezekiel and Enoch, Job and Jonah is palpable. And yet, they are better written than Sha'awl's deplorable letters. And Paul is a genius of great literary prowess compared to Muhammad's recital – which is easily the worst book ever written, although it wasn't written within 100 years of his death.

39:03 So, has Satan degraded over time like a man with dementia – akin to what we are witnessing with Joe Biden? Surely, human intellect across the board hasn't fallen so appreciably that the Quran was Satan's best effort under the circumstances.

39:29 This leaves us with an additional consideration. Did Satan play to another audience? We know that he composed Ezekiel for Jews who thought that they were better than their G-d and who believed that they could write their own Torah and did. He inspired Paul's Epistles for the Romans and Greeks who thought that they were better than the Jews. And then he recited the Quran for the Arabs who were content to rob, rape, and kill Jews since they had nothing better to do with their lives. Or, by aiding and abetting all three, was Halal ben Shachar thumbing his nose at Yahowah, showing the Almighty that he could play all men for fools, from the intellectual to the incapacitated?

40:27 Our options are to conclude that the Quran was the worst book ever recited because Satan's mental acuity had degraded over time, because Muhammad was an imbecile, because the intended audience was ignorant and illiterate, or because he wanted to embarrass God to such an extent that He would give up on His creation and not return to Yisra'el. Pick your poison. But let's not disparage God to the extent that we pretend that He is the voice of the Quran or that Muhammad was a prophet.

41:08 And for your sake, don't stoop to worship the Lord of Delusion as if he were God.

41:15 Quran 002.021 "O the mankind, worship Rabbakumu | your Lord, the One Who created you and those from before you so that you may become right.

41:35 Quran 002.022 The One Who made for you the earth a resting place and they sky a roof and sent down from the sky water then brought forth therewith of the fruits, a provision for you. So do not set up rivals to il-Lahi while you you [sic] know.”

41:58 It's easy to see how humankind was duped into believing that gods wanted to be worshiped. Gods, including HaShem, Jesus, and Allah, were all crafted by men who sought the same. But this cannot be true for the Creator, because a superior being ceases to be credible when worshiped by an inferior being He has created for that purpose. It shows that he is pathetic and inadequate, as deplorable and unlovable as Hitler, Stalin, or Mao.

42:43 By demanding worship from men, Allah shows that he is insecure and needy, a narcissist who is inferior to men. By claiming to be the Lord while humiliating man, Allah is demonstrating that he is in fact Halal ben Shachar.

43:04 Since believing is the result of not knowing, it cannot be the means to being right. And it is not right to call the “earth a resting place” or the “sky a roof.” To be God, the spirit cannot be consistently wrong.

43:23 Rain and fruit are not proofs of Divinity. So, there is no rational connection between them and not setting up rivals to il-Lahi. Although, that is an intriguing thought. What would comprise a rival: another cherub, a bigger, badder snake, someone who is literate?

43:51 Quran 002.023 “And if you are in doubt of what We have revealed to Our slave, then produce bisuratin | a surah of like it, and call your witnesses from other than al-Lahi if you are truthful.

44:15 Quran 002.024 But if not you do, and never will you do, then fear the Fire whose its fuel the men and the stones prepared for the infidel disbelievers.”

44:29 That sounds like a challenge to me. At first, I would say I'll just dismiss it. Dr. Seuss writes better sonnets than this. They are original, instructive, nurturing, and chronological. So, I call the Grinch to witness; he is no less real, and a lot less disturbed. And conveniently, he's even green. 45:00 Nonetheless, I am ready to take up the challenge and I have assembled my advisers Me, Myself, and I, and we are ready to snark. Now if you are a reader up to this point you have read 1,800 pages of God Damn Religion, you have read 74 suras from beginning to end, you have considered 100 of the 114. You know that all the Quran had going for it was rhyme and rhythm and nothing else because there is nothing sane said in the Quran. It is stunningly sadistic and stupid. So, to match this challenge it's got to rhyme, it's got to have a little bit of rhythm, but it can't say anything that is intelligent. So, that is the challenge. The challenge is to create one like it. It doesn't say to create a book or a chapter that is beautifully written; no, it said one like it. So that's what I accepted. This is my Surrotten:

46:16 The Surrotten of Al-Kafir | The Disbeliever

“Worship me or We'll torture you said a whiny al-Lahu in his crappy Quranu.

*I paid rabbis to recite their stories, and then changed them to make inane allegories.
When the Jews mocked Us for doing so, I silenced them with a savage blow.
We blamed them for what We did, then took a bow in our masjid.
Not a god, just a snake, this is all a colossal fake.
It's not much of a rant, but it comes with a fun surrotten you can chant.
Do a salat, pay the zakat, kill a kafir, it's all for naught. We know you can be bought, just don't get caught.
And yet they fought in the great onslaught to win our bogus jackpot.
Virgins served up as if they were candy, it was a devilish lie that came in handy.
Believing this is quite incontrovertible and as a bonus I come across morbidly merciful.
Perhaps We are the worst god ever, but you believe, and that makes Me quite clever.
We're the ones worthy of praise. Disbelieve and We'll burn your ugly ass in Our blaze.
Okay, I know, it is animal cruelty, but it shows that We have mental acuity with a dash of ambiguity.
And We remind you of the winged ass. Babylonian and stolen, making Me quite crass.
But with this insane account, we put Our trophy on your Temple Mount.
From the river to the sea, Fakeistan will be free. Sure it's a lie, but nonetheless you will die.
Since We enslave through submission, freedom is Our form of sedition. That's quite an admission.
Groping in the dark, there has been so much snark.
Demonic Dreams became Never-Ending Curses, from an Idolatrous Indulgences to Satanic Verses.
From the Astonishing Ass to the Becoming an Ass, it was a lot of drivel to amass, but alas We are low lass.
Not to be forgotten as verboten just because it's rotten for the wanton to seek the ill-gotten.
With terror as Our tactic our aspirations are galactic. Even if the end is anticlimactic and We're apoplectic.
Our verses may be demeaning, but never forget our swords are gleaming.
When all is told, they will fold. Heads will roll in a massive death toll.*

That may sound crude, but I am that rude.

Taunting or torturing, it's all the same to Me, as are heaven and hell, so We will cop this plea.

Yes it's criminal and delusional, so unforgivable, but it's subliminal and inexplicable especially for the imbecile.

As for Us, I was schizophrenic, but We are better now. Not really, but let's pretend anyhow.

I terrorized everyone who disobeyed I must confess, including mythical people, but We digress.

Rocks talk, mountains fly, skies fall, and the sun is Our obedient slave, so for those who behave, we'll open your grave.

We play with bones in Our enclave, resurrecting bodies is all the rave for the slave to behave.

It's the Day of Doom, from the tomb you presume We will exhume to the showroom where carnality will resume.

I have like a billion names, so call me whatever, it's all fun and games.

I'll reward you all the same for the endeavor, although maybe never.

If you forget, I'll remind you until you scream, I created you in a dream.

It was from a bunch of revolting stuff, none of which was up to snuff, It was all really yucky, so aren't you so very lucky.

Join the faith O little you without a brain or We will see that you are among the slain.

So let's not feign that it is I who reign, or was that rain, I can't recall 'cause I'm insane.

But what does that say of you, based upon what you claim?

Plan your plots you stinking blood clots, but know We the best of schemers and you are naught but screaming lemures, you worthless daydreamers.

My pet monkey, al-Rasuli, he's no prize I must advise, he's full of lies in a thin disguise.

He's a real pervert, so you'll not be safe unless you convert.

He's a rapist and terrorist, a murder and slaver, but he did me a favor and I gave him a waver.

Since he's like me, you better like him or the outcome will be quite grim.

Besides, fair warning, he's a sadist, both the latest and the greatest. But so am I, and that's no lie.

So don't be insulting or he'll start sulking. Should you think to mock We'll throw our black rock.

But not to worry, and don't be dreary, there is always an excuse for those who are leery, even if quite eerie, especially for those offering goodly loans in honor of my fractured stones.

So here's My warning I'm forming an alarming Day of Erection, 'cause I can be a real dick. Of all My cons, it's my favorite shtick.

I don't have a clue as to when it will arise, but for My guys it scrapes the skies, even as I advise it's no prize.

For those We chastise, especially the wise, it's the worst screwing I could devise.

I'd thank you for listening to us recite, but we predestined it because we must be right.

Have I told you I'm the best? Then say, 'Lo! Verily, don't associate Us with the rest.'

Besides, if you do, I kill you.

Don't set up rivals or there will be reprisals.

Since I was a crook, there was no book, so don't look or you'll be forsook.

Illiterate and imbecilic, immoral and idiotic, all perfect for the myopic and despotic, fitting because We are psychotic.

So, bow down prostrate and we'll stay out of your prostate.

Worship Me and We'll let you live until I change Our mind, well, if reptiles were so inclined.

Unless you're a disbelieving dufus, then we'll snuff you out without a fuss, never mind the puss, there is not much to discuss.

We see all, so I know there is clear proof that that this is a spoof.

That makes Muslims a crappy fraud, but no hard feelings because I'm a lousy god.

So let's do something really bad. Killing Arabs can be the latest fad.

Engage in a little jihada and it'll be like reciting the full shahada.

We can rape and rob them too. After all, they did it first to you.

It'll upend all the terror, but there never was a point for punitive purveyor – just the prayer of the misguided manslayer and soothsayer, Our naysayer.

So, as your accomplice, I'll bind them with My fetters and they'll never see you coming with this mind-numbing surrotten forthcoming.

Crazy, I know but I must confess, the clincher was a blunder under duress.

Tossing some extra virgin on my specialty, I got lost in a word salad of great enormity,

Contest won, it's been so much fun, and all with words without a gun.

A God, not me, so let this be.

Ditch the burkas and the qurans and I'll stop this babble so you'll not spawn the next pawn.

Nice chat. But I sMyka'ell rat. We'll do it again so that I can win, albeit not with my evil twin and to his chagrin.

We'd admit that al-Laha is Satan, but then I'd be beraten.

Proof is in the mail. I never fail. And that's the end of My Snake's tail.

Say, 'Allahu Akbar – al-Lahu is a mouse!' – a fitting conclusion to this rouse over the idolatrous rock house."

56:03 My conclusion was the Great Surat Challenge has been accepted and bested by an ugly Surrotten. And so that you know, I would have written a nice poem, but that wouldn't have met the criterion. The dare was to create one the likes of al-Lahu's. And even then, with a full complement of verbs, pronouns, and prepositions, I still colored outside the lines.

56:28 DEE: That was far more coherent than the competition.

56:35 YADA: (Laughter) I would say that for somebody who is not familiar with the Quran wouldn't know that everything that I said was an inside stab at the heart of Al-Lahu's rhetoric. So, it is all in mocking him from beginning to end with his "Day of Erection, I burn you, I kill you," and "my al-Rasuli." The whole thing plays off what he says. You throw in "a little jihada and it'll be like reciting the full shahada." Every line was a stab at what came out of the Quran.

57:19 Now, as I pick up this story, we are three quarters of the way through the Quran chronologically and yet this is the first time that Gabriel, the Messenger's messenger, is named and even then, it's a complete farce. Gabriel spoke to Daniel in the 7th Century BCE not to Muhammad in the 7th Century CE. Further, Gabriel is al-Lahi's foremost enemy and in that regard, he is joined by Myka'el. These men are also outspoken opponents of Muhammad in Islam making the opposite of what I'm about to share with you from Quran 297 and 298 true.

58:06 Quran 002.097 "Say (Muhammad): Whoever is an enemy to (Jibrila)? | Gabriel—for he brings it down to your heart by permission of al-Lahi, confirming what was (revealed) before, and guidance and glad tidings for those who believe. Whoever is an enemy of il-Lahi, His angels, His Messengers, to (Jibrila)? | Gabriel and Mikael | Michael, Lo! Verily al-Laha (Himself) is an enemy of the disbelievers."

58:41 Now you might say that's just total gibberish. No. It's very clear here. While il-Lahi himself as Satan was the Demonic Spirit who terrorized Muhammad in the first Quran surah 90 surahs ago, the non-profit wants us to believe that the tormenting invader was Jibril(a)?. Like most everything else, this name was misappropriated from Yahowah's testimony. Allah seems to have a very limited imagination and his range of emotions is also limited. The moment we're introduced to Allah's pretend cohorts, which is kind of funny because Allah claims he was a loner (don't associate anybody with me), they are off to war condemning their enemies for rejecting their doctrine of submission. Every word of this reeks of Satan, the real enemy of the Jews.

59:37 As previously discussed in God Damn Religion, Volumes One and Two (we're now in Volume Three), pursuant to the inane Hadith attempting to explain the horrid initial recital, Gabriel is not only a man and identified as such during the meeting with Daniel, but the Hebrew basis for that name also affirms that he is human. Gabry is from geber, "a particularly strong and resolute human; a capable and confrontational individual." It's one of the Hebrew words for man, it just happens to be "a strong man," as in geber. The same word vocalized gabar speaks of "a man who is exceptionally proficient and assured; resolute and influential." These ideas are expanded in gabowr which is based upon them and describes "the most capable and courageous, competent and heroic leader among men." Therefore, when these concepts are joined together with 'El | God and with 'any which is where the Y comes from in Gabry'el, the result is "I Am God's Most Competent, Capable, Confrontational and Courageous Man." There's only one person who can make that claim and that is Dowd | David, the Messiah and King, the Son of God, our Savior. This is what makes the prophecy in Daniel 9 so powerful is that the Messiah was speaking of what he himself would accomplish. And since no one has ever been more devoted to Israel than Dowd, nor more committed to protect and save his people, when pilfering a name for the alleged "Angel" reciting the Quran to the Rasuli could not have made a less appropriate choice.

1:01:45 But the AdverSary's reasons are likely twofold: First, since the Christians in Petra were falsely led to believe that Gabriel heralded the birth of baby God when speaking to the mythical Virgin Mary, they told Muhammad that he couldn't be as important without a similar pronouncement, so the non-prophet began making up stories of Jibril(a)? | Gabriel claiming that he was the source of the Quran, then he evidently was able to convince his un-God to corroborate his lies. The second possibility for what is otherwise an obvious blunder is that Dowd, as the returning King and Yisra'el's Savior, is Satan's nemesis. When he returns, the Devil's gig as God is over and it's off to She'owl for al-Lahu. So, by claiming Gabriel for himself Allah is recasting the future to suit his agenda.

1:02:54 Now as for Mikāl | Michael (his actual name is his Myka'el), he's also a man and is introduced to us through the same series of prophecies where he is a witness serving as a Sar a representative of the King – Dowd. His name is derived from my which means "who," ky, ka, and ken - "associated with and connected to; right about," and 'El | God.

1:03:32 Since what is said about Myka'el and our mission, why I'm condemning Allah | Satan and Islam | submission on behalf of Yisra'elites and Yahuwdym while heralding Dowd's return with Yahowah and the reconciliation of the Covenant relationship is so essential to who we are, why we're here, what God is trying to achieve, who the players are, where we stand in the flow of time, I'm going to share with you this evening something I wrote now probably the better part of two years ago in dealing with the first time I read Myka'el's name and read these prophecies, and as I reread them to include them in God Damn Religion, Volume 3. I was struck with how extraordinary they are particularly following October 7th.

1:04:39 And so at that time Myka'el | the one who is truthful and right about God and associated with the Almighty who is representing the king will have an important role in nourishing the growth and promoting your family's children taking a stand present and accountable. Then there will be a Time of Trouble beyond which has never existed from a Gentile nation prior to this time. And during this period your people will be saved, everyone rescued from harm's way and delivered who is found written in the Book. Dany'el / Daniel 12:1.

1:05:37 Let's think about this for a moment. Here's a person described as a man who's given, whether you want to call it a name or a title, and it's a man, ...who is truthful and right about God (There haven't been many of those; I'm not sure there's been a single one over the past 2,000 years) ...who is truthful and right about God and associated with the Almighty... The principal direct meaning with my "who is" ka "associated, connected to" 'El God is that God chose this person, and He is standing with him and using him. That's the most direct meaning. That certainly sounds like what we've read about the Nakry and the Choter in the hundreds of prophecies about this particular mission. ...who is representing the king... I don't think there's anybody else out there who is devoted to representing Dowd. And we're not just representing Dowd by presenting his Mizmowr correctly. I think we are doing something that hasn't been done in the better part of 3,000 years with the groundbreaking and profound insights into Dowd's Mizmowr, but we are the first people ever in the history of humanity in 3,000 years that are correctly stating that Dowd served as the Passover Lamb, that Dowd fulfilled Matsah and Bikuwrym leading to Shabuwa'h, and that Taruwa'h exists to herald his return to fulfill Kipurym so that he can be our Shepherd during Sukah. That has never been said before and it is so profoundly important to God's people to understand that is the nature of this man.

1:07:45 The idea of being his Sar is beyond representing that he is the one returning with Yahowah, that he will be our King and our Shepherd, that he has served as our Savior, that he is the most enlightening prophet in all the thousands of years that Yahowah through him. Dowd has responsibilities at the end; he's the King. So, if you are a Sar, you are working for him; you are one of the King's delegates. That's what kings do – they delegate. God happens to be the Ultimate Delegator; He doesn't do anything alone. He told Moseh "We're going to go do this. I want you to do this. I want you to do that." Yahowah likes to delegate; it's His prerogative, it's His universe. Good managers work that way. Dowd is going to work that way. Myka'el is one of the King's assistants. His purpose will be to have an important role in nourishing the growth and promoting the family of the Covenant of Yisra'el, which is what we have written 33 books to do.

1:09:12 “And he will take a stand present and accountable. Then there will be a Time of Trouble,” which means that this person had to do all of this before the Time of Trouble began so that he can share it during the Time of Trouble to save God's people from it. That's what was so striking to me as I read through that. It's so riveting because it eliminated the possibility of anybody else. Even though we have ten years left, I can't imagine somebody amassing 33 books on the shelves and tens of thousands of audio programs that's going to introduce Yisra'el to Yahowah by name and introduce them to their Messiah and Savior by name and explain the Miqra'ey, the Coveanant's terms, conditions and benefits that God laid out. That doesn't exist anywhere. It has to exist before the Time of Trouble.

1:10:31 This is a place where I think Dee and I share an understanding. The Time of Trouble is exactly ten years to the day. It runs from October 7th, 2023, to October 7th, 2033. 2033 is year 6000 Yah. That's when we begin Sukah, camping out with God. So, all the tough stuff that has to be done between Yahowah's return with Dowd on Kipurym, which is the first day of the week October 2nd at 6:22 p.m. in Jerusalem as the sun sets, that's when God's going to come for His family. We read about that on our last show in the 149th Mizmowr, and how that is going to occur. There is gap of time between that time and when we start camping out together when the Earth is reformed as Eden. There's a lot of work to do and so the Time of Trouble ends exactly 10 years to the day that it started.

1:11:48 “There will be a Time of Trouble beyond which has ever existed.” Now that says a lot. The Romans, Greeks, Assyrians, Babylonians, Egyptians, Hitler, the Roman Catholic Church, Europe, the Nazis, the Muslims were bad and are still being bad perhaps being perpetrated by Gentiles prior to this time.

1:12:19 “And during this period your people will be saved, everyone rescued from harm's way and delivered whoever is found written in the Book.” There are 13 references to Myka'el in the Towrah, Prophets and Psalms, ten of which address ordinary individuals from long ago. The three depictions which apply to this particular individual where he is being designated by this title are found only in Daniel. The other two appear in the 10th chapter. Therefore, what we know of him, his identity and purpose is explained here. The most overriding clue as to the nature of this individual is the recognition that Myka'el | One Who is Associated with and Truthful about God is descriptive as a title, and I think it serves more as a title than as a name each of the three times that it is presented. It is a compound of several Hebrew words beginning with my which is an interrogatory asking us if we know who is being addressed. This is followed by the contraction ky, ka, or ken. If ky it means “indeed; speaking of someone who is certain, truthful and who is emphatic and reasonable.” With ka it's “an individual who's associated with and connected to God. He has a propensity to make this kind of comparison and association needed to understand.” With ken his claims about God are “verifiable and correct, truthful and certain.” So, Myka'el concludes with 'el which is God's title meaning “Almighty

God.” Therefore, all these things point to God Himself. That’s a nice blend also as a title to pair with ‘Elyah because ‘Elyah, just the opposite way, is “God is Yah | ‘Elyah where ‘El is Yah and Yah is God. So, Myka’el would be right about God and associated with God, and he's trying to save Yisra’el | To Endure and Engage with God.

1:14:36 As we would expect from such an individual, especially as we approach Dowd’s return to defend and lead his people, Myka’el is a Sar serving as the representative of the King. He is Sar “working for the anointed Leader by focusing on his family,” which would be Yisra’el, “and their relationship with God.” As such Myka’el is Sar “clearly designated, overtly authorized, and resolutely empowered by the Messiah and King of Kings.

1:15:46 Few things are more important to God's people than for them to recognize that Dowd is the Son of God, he is our Shepherd, the Passover Lamb, the returning Messiah and King. This realization not only nullifies the aspirations of progressive Judaism, Christianity, and Islam it presents the ultimate Yahuwd calling his people home. This is the essential truth designated throughout Yada Yahowah, and particularly Coming Home. It’s why we went back and rewrote every book from beginning to end and it's echoed here now in God Damn Religion.

1:16:32 We are told Myka’el will be ha gadowl “will play an important role in nourishing the growth of ‘al ben ‘am ‘atah “of your family’s children.” That would be the Covenant children, the Children of Yisra’el. This means that he will gadowl “intensely and vociferously distinguish himself through amplification” to empower God’s people with an occasional Surrotten just for humor. Further, not only will Myka’el ‘amad “be appointed and supported while taking a stand on behalf of the Chosen people,” his work will commence prior to “the” eth tsarah “Time of Trouble.”

1:17:20 So there is no mistaking his timing with our own today we are told that the resulting tsarah “confinement and adversity” will be as a result of gowym and their nations being more overtly hostile to Jews and Israel than any other time in history, worse than Assyria, Babylon, Greece, Imperial Rome, the Roman Catholics, Muslims, or the Nazis. And, by the way, tsarah is the basis of the country Mitsraym, and Sar actually speaks of confinement, and it is where we learn that Yisra’el is going to be constrained at the waist and made vulnerable because of this confining where she can live and making her vulnerable as a result. So, it’s a word that, I don’t want to use “hints” because it's stronger than that, but certainly indicates that the two-state solution is going to be imposed on Israel and that will be devastating to God's people in the world.

1:18:42 Therefore, Myka’el will be speaking out against Islam and the gruesome and genocidal Muslim attacks on Israel, which actually began in 1929 with the Hebron Massacre to murder Jews living in their homeland. From 1936 - 1939 was the Arab Revolt to remove Jews from their homes, from 1948 - 1949 was the War of Independence to prevent Jews from returning to Israel, 1964 was the formation of the PLO to terrorize and delegitimize Israel, 1967 was the Six Day War to obliterate Israel, 1972 was the Munich Olympics to massacre and terrorized Jews by the PLO, 1973 – 1979 was the Yom Kippur War that went all the way to 1979 which is when the Final Accords were signed and the Sinai was surrendered; what a mistake by the United States. That war was fought to eliminate the State of Israel. In 1987 - 1993 the PLO confronted Israel with the first intifada, the uprising to terrorize Jews, in 1982, we have the first Lebanon war with the PLO, in 2000 - 2005 we have the second PLO intifada. Understand that Fatah, the Palestinian Authority, and the PLO are all one entity. There is no distinction among them. And that continued to murder Jewish civilians. In 2006 we have the second Lebanon War, this time against Hezbollah, Allah's party. In 2008 - 2009 we have the first Hamas Rocket War just three years after the United States made Israel surrender Gaza to the Muslim terrorists. In 2012 we have the second Hamas Rocket War, in 2021 was the Hamas Al Aqsa War, and in 2022 we have the Palestinian Islamic Jihad Rocket War which led to the formal beginning of the Time of Trouble with the 2023 Hamas Massacre October 7th. Therefore, much of Myka'el's message to restore Yisra'el's relationship with Yahowah would be completed by 2023. And that's the turning point because at no time prior to that did the world almost in unison turn against Israel and now the lone Trojan horse that's out there that can preclude the demise of Israel with the imposition of a Fakeistanian state, America, is calling the leader of Israel an asshole, which is grossly inappropriate even if it were true and it isn't. It's just disgusting. but that that shows you just how far America leadership has fallen. So, that means that the next ten years with the material completed you have ten years to provide this individual, Myka'el, with the opportunity to share it with God's people.

1:22:14 Now if that were not enough to correctly identify Myka'el, | One who is Truthful and Right About God, and associate with and place him ba ha 'eth ha hy' "in this specific period his contribution to Yahowah's Family will be masah "to find and then share" kathab "what is written" in the ba ha sepher "in the Book" such that Yahuwdym are malat "rescued" from harm's way and delivered unto Yahowah.

1:22:54 When Myka'el is initially introduced it is in Daniel 10:3 where he is 'echad ha Sar ha ri'shown, very common Hebrew words. 'Echad means that Myka'el is either "a certain one of," "the one and only," or in this particular stated role that he is "the first or foremost person" to do these things I've been describing. There's been no one preceding him, for example, in sharing the correct pronunciation of Yahowah's name or that the Covenant has five conditions and five benefits or that the Mow'ed Miqra'ey deliver those benefits of the Covenant and that the most important of them is Matsah which is a seven-day feast, or that Dowd fulfilled them and Dowd is returning to fulfill Kipurym | Reconciliations, and it's not a day of afflictions. Ha ri'shown reveals that he is the primary and foremost and thus the principal person serving in this capacity. He is likely the first to do so. Ri'shown reveals that he would have begun conveying this particular message before anyone else. Ri'shown is the basis of the first word in the entire Towrah, "In the beginning" Bare'syth, from ro'sh. This is further confirmed in Daniel 10:14 which is in Myka'el's voice and reads: "Now I have come to provide you with an understanding of what will happen to your people in the End of Days because the revelation pertains to that time. (Dany'el / My God is Judgmental / Daniel 10:14). Now, this does not make Myka'el a prophet because Myka'el was there to explain to us reading Daniel's account of what Gabriel had said. So, it's Gabriel | Gabry'el who is the prophet Dowd, who is the greatest prophet in the history of the world. There are only two other people that you could put in his league as a prophet but no one you can put in his league in terms of all that he accomplished in life. He is the one of one, but as a prophet he can be compared to both Moseh and Yasha'yah. So, he's the one delivering this message and he's telling it about himself both of the fulfillment of Pesach in 33, year 4000 Yah and of his return on Yowm Kipurym in year 6000 Yah. So, he's talking about himself and Myka'el is there listening and doing what I'm doing right now explaining it. That's what it says.

1:26:06 An explainer is not a prophet. It's handy to have one because Dowd's prophecy was the most complex prophecy ever spoken so it's really handy to have an explainer there to say this is what he said, let me dumb this down for all of us here so we can understand it.

1:26:26 The second of three references to Myka'el, who was responsible for explaining what Dowd revealed, is found in the 21st and concluding statement of the 10th chapter. There we learn that his role was nagad "conspicuously reported" to us by ha rasham "having been inscribed" ba katab "in writing in the "book" 'emeth which is trustworthy, enduring, and reliable. So, this puts this in because it then says lo' 'echad chazaq "uniquely contentious and very intense, even overpowering individual" in pursuit of the restoration of God's people.

1:27:23 God said we don't have a lot of time left. We started this 22 years ago and we only have ten years left; that's not a lot of time to go from zero Yahuwdym who would have been at Kipurym to what I think will be 70,000 by the time we're done. So, there's just not a lot of time. Yahowah needed at this time (He doesn't want to overpower the individual; He wants to communicate to us through people) somebody with some of these qualities. It's time to be contentious, intense, overpowering in the pursuit of the restoration of God's people.

1:28:27 Once again in this pronouncement Myka'el is again presented as a Sar "a leading representative of the king." And his family are not his sons, daughters, and wives. His family is the Children of Yisra'el, those who will attend Kipurym.

1:29:45 It's mistakenly assumed that Myka'el is the name of an archangel. Not. No wings in this case. Such nonsense comes from the Book of Jude in the New Testament where there's a mythical dispute between Michael and the Archangel and the devil over the dead body of Moses. Let me assure those who venerate grave sites that Moseh's words matter. While his body is gone and otherwise irrelevant, mal'ak do not Sar. They don't represent kings. Moreover, there's no record of anyone named Myka'el writing anything which would be gadawl which would have promoted the growth of Yahowah's Family. In particular, while mal'ak have speaking roles, they are seldom vociferous while I have a tendency to be verbose. They do not rely on amplification, which I do, nor is it their role to magnify anyone, and as we have discovered, Gabry'el isn't a mal'ak either. He is instead the Greatest Man of God. Therefore, Myka'el is descriptive of a person who validates and verifies the means to develop a relationship with the Almighty. He is the one who is present and accountable, appointed and supported prior to Yisra'el's descent into the Time of Trouble, which has already begun. And now since it has already begun there is no longer any time for someone to arrive on the scene and use their translations and insights to compose something comparable to the 33 volumes of Yada Yahowah.

1:30:43 DEE: Someone needs to be called Yada; I don't see anyone else going by that.

1:30:51 YADA: I don't either. Or that bases everything they say on Yahowah. I represent Him, I serve Him, I love Him. He is our friend, our father, our boss, He is everything for us and God's people. Yada Yahowah means "to know Yah." Therefore, friends, you are listening to the results of Myka'el's service to Yahowah and to Yisra'el doing his best to represent Dowd as our returning Savior and King. But more than this Myka'el's role is to explain Daniel's vision so that Yisra'elites understand it before it's too late, and that's what we are going to read about next. As bad as Rome and Roman Catholicism have been, what is about to unfold is going to be far worse.

1:31:45 In the annals of human history considering the blight of nations, even the bitterness of the gow, nothing has ever existed which can compare to the tsarah "period of anguish, adversity and adversary." I'm here to tell you that thought was something we shared based upon what we read in the translation two years ago. No one could have imagined the worst terrorist act to be perpetrated on Israel in the history of God's people, which is what took place on October 7th, and it just happens to be exactly ten days to the day of when we began to celebrate the seventh and final Mow'ed Miqra' on October 7th, 2033. Fortunately, it is during the Time of Trouble that God's people will be awakened and protected and those who are rescued will find their name ascribed in The Book of Life. Although these ten years will be hellacious for God's people, is the best thing that could possibly happen to them because until there is no hope but Yahowah they won't listen.

1:33:10 I'm going to read the rest of this prophecy for you in the time we have remaining.

"And many important and infamous individuals of those who are asleep in the dust of the earth will be awakened, some of these to the restoration of everlasting life and others to eternal scorn and shame, insults and reproach, accusations and censure for having been abhorrent and appalling. Therefore, the circumspect with insight who are discerning demonstrating the capacity to understand will become prominent obtaining a high status being respected among Heavenly beings shining brightly while enlightening and admonishing, similar to the light of the expanse of the universe such that they will be greatly valued for the numerous worthy individuals who will be vindicated for being right becoming like stars as eternal restoring witnesses forever more." That's Daniel 12:2-3.

1:34:38 God is saying that people who are famous, important, who are asleep, who have died, their souls will be raised and awakened. Some of them will enjoy a life of restoration and everlasting life and others will go to eternal scorn, reproach and censure for having been abhorrent and appalling. This is important because the role that the Sar Myka'el plays in this drama as one of Dowd's assistants is judgment. He is imbued with the responsibility. Dowd doesn't want to do it. It's not that he doesn't want to do it, it's just that he has many other things to deal with. It's a 45-day period of judgment and making this determination is going to be largely Myka'el's responsibility. I think he will share it with 'Elyah, but I'm not certain. I can be certain that it's Myka'el's responsibility though. That's why he's presented in this context. Therefore, it's important that people not be circumspect because this is everything that we're about. We think our way to God, we know God through His words, we make the proper associations to know who He is, what He's offering and expecting in return. Those who do this thing with the capacity to understand, God is saying they're going to be prominent, they're going to have a very high status and what could be a higher status than inheriting the universe from its Creator because you're one of God's sons or daughters? That's as good as it gets.

1:36:41 He's saying "...you're going to shine brightly while enlightening and admonishing, similar to the light of the expanse of the universe..." beyond a single star. There will be those among us who are part of the enlightenment and the bringing home of God's people, the restoration of God's people. He's saying we're going beyond the light of a single star. That's how much energy that you're going to possess.

1:37:06 Then He says, "...such that they will be greatly valued for the numerous worthy individuals who will be vindicated for being right..." That is the purpose of this mission. We want, when Yahowah returns on Yowm Kipurym in 6000 Yah, in 2033, less than ten years from now, God to be pleased with the attendance at that event. The attendance isn't based strictly on size, although this does say numerous. Psalm 149 spoke of a large crowd, so I think there will be in the range of 70,000 people there; however, it's the quality of the people. God would have done all of this for one, if for just Dowd alone. So, one was enough. 'Adam was enough. 'Abraham was enough.

1:38:16 So, it does say that we're going to be "eternal and restoring witnesses forever more" la 'owlam wa 'ad la. That's powerful. That takes us to the point of saying not only is this the mission, but this is the consequence and result of this mission, and now in the light of what happened on October 7th, and the fact that Myka'el is positioned before it to take advantage during it so we can celebrate like this after it, what a powerful message.

1:38:53 "Now as for you, Daniel," Daniel was a scallywag. Daniel was not the brightest boy in the world. He's not a prophet but he did get to write this down because Dowd showed up and said this is what's going to happen. There were two others there who I think logically are Myka'el, who's named here, and 'Elyah, who is named elsewhere.

1:39:19 "Now as for you, Daniel, seal up this testimony making this message secure while precluding access to the meaning that is hidden within the words and place a stamp and signature on the book until before the time of the restoring witness runs out." That would be until now.

1:39:45 DEE: As of last year.

1:39:45 “Many and notably rabbis and others who are infamous and exalted will wander about aimlessly rowing up a waterfall even with access to information which leads to understanding becoming more prevalent...” Lots of information out there; all they do is get ever more confused. “...roaming around randomly accomplishing nothing while rowing against the current.” One of my favorite lines is “rowing up a waterfall.” And that’s what the word means, so I got to actually weave one of my favorite themes into the translation because that’s it’s a correct translation of it.

1:40:33 Then it says, “Then I, Daniel, looked and behold the two others in the end...” We know that ‘Elyah is one of them, now Myka’el is the other, so both of them are named. Those are the two witnesses in the end. “...behold the two witnesses in the end, they were present, they were appointed, they were accounted for, they were supported while taking a stand. One individual was now present here as the means to channel speech and conveying the message.” So, you’ve got the two witnesses and now you have another individual present who is distinct from these two who is “now present here as a means to channel speech conveying the message.”

1:41:41 “And the other person was simultaneously present close by as a conduit for words with verbally expressive lips flowing with language.” This is our brilliant orator and lyricist, Dowd. “And he said to the individual of linen garments...” because he’s coming back to fulfill Kipurym which means he has to anoint the Kaporeth / the Mercy Seat of the Ark of the Covenant which means he needs to be in priestly garments to do that, “... who for the benefit of the relationship was from the dimension above and beyond...” God and I don’t talk about status very often, but there is somebody that has status with God – that’s Dowd. None of us are in Dowd’s league. We get to live in his home, but Dowd’s the guy, and he earned it. He fulfilled Pesach and Matsah. So, Dowd’s the guy who is coming from the dimension above. He is coming down as brilliant as the sun. Dowd is our King, he’s the returning Savior and Messiah, “... the source of the waters of the stream...” Remember the stream that is in Zacharia where he is talking about the two witnesses? He’s the source of that stream. So, we all are speaking on behalf of God’s Son. Why are we speaking on behalf of God’s son not just on God’s? Because that’s the way God wants it.

1:43:27 God’s Son did these things: he fulfilled Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym leading to Shabuw’ah and Taruw’ah, and will fulfill Kipurym and Sukah. So, God wants him to be recognized for these things; this is what fathers want. God knows who He is. He doesn’t need us to praise Him, He’s very comfortable with who He is. He’s proud of His Son. So, our attention is drawn to him. It’s just like when Yahowah says in Zacharia that I’m returning with the one that you pierced, and you will weep for him as one would weep for a firstborn. God’s not saying you’re going to weep for Me, He’s not saying you’re going to worship Me, He’s not saying aren’t I great. He’s saying this is My Son, isn’t he great? That’s the attitude of God. He is a marvelous father. It's why we can work for God and kid, laugh, joke with Him and have the best time together. This is how He relates to those like His Son, Dowd.

1:44:35 So, "...the source of the waters of the stream..." How long will this restoring witness be? "...until the end of these distinguishing and intensely wonderful explanations and astounding communication of things that would otherwise be difficult to understand." This is all being presented now in a way that even the most complicated ideas that God has shaped in future prophecies thoughtful people are now able to understand. "Then I listened to the individual clothed in linen (Dowd) coming to anoint The Mercy Seat of the Ark of the Covenant to fulfill the Towrah's requirement for the reconciliation of God's people who for the benefit of the relationship was from the dimension above and beyond the source of the waters of the stream." Living waters, purifying waters. "He raised his right hand and then his left toward the heavens and then he made a solemn promise in conjunction with the one who lives forever that there will be to draw near Mow'ed Mow'edym, three years of restoring witnesses to the appointments." That means those two witnesses are going to be in place. It's got to be on Mowryah because that's where this stuff takes place for three years. From 2030 – 2033; it will be Pesach in 2030 that they return, and they'll be here to the end. "And in the midst of another then accordingly the separation of the hand and outreach of the Set-Apart People will be over." All these things will come to fruition. We've got three years and that's the end.

1:46:50 I think that we begin six months after the fulfillment of Taruw'ah which I'm hoping there will be 7,000 Yahuwdym and Gowym that are harvested during the Taruw'ah Harvest; indications are that there will be 7,000. Then you're there with the most clever and sarcastic orator of all time in 'Elyah, and I'm honing my oratory at this point because I get to stand next to him, that's Myka'el, and we have three years. Now it's not the kind of thing that you would sign up for and say I want this duty. No. We are going to be slammed, attacked and ridiculed by virtually everybody in the world. By the very end it will be 70,000, I think will be the number, against however many have survived of the 8 billion that are on the earth. So, tough duty is the answer to that question.

1:48:00 If anybody is saying I'm bragging. No, I'm not. This is what it says. If God says this is what I'm going to do that's what He's going to do. It's a really dumb thing to run from what God wants to accomplish. It's not only counterproductive, and in this case God has so much riding on it, this is the end of everything and for the last 3,000 years there have been very few Yahuwdym who have listened to Him, and that's got to change radically over these next ten years. So, God's got a lot riding on this and for any of us to say maybe He's talking about somebody else, let somebody else have this responsibility, that would not go over well. Think about God just said this was going to happen and how appreciative God is that we're all doing this for Him, His people, and for His Son.

KIRK: What an honor.

YADA: I don't look at it as an honor; I look at it as this is what God wants done and He is the most fun person ever, and what are 32 years of my life and our time now together versus the benefit of Yahowah being delighted with what transpired and having thousands of family members to celebrate eternity with, all of whom will know we played some role in this. It's a very gratifying situation. That's why I encourage people, like last week when Dee said there were some that don't want to read God Damn Religion but instead want to do the Towrah part, and I said no because this is essential. This is what is saving Yisra'el and is what earns us the right to speak to them for them to listen to us because we understand their enemy. It's really important.

I realize everyone has families and jobs. I sit here and my wife even brings me all three meals right to my desk because I don't get up. I know it's different for others, but everything you do is appreciated by Yahowah.

DEE: You know how you were talking about people who can't accept that the status quo is going to change, and they just think the next day is going to be the same as the next? It's like we are in this, people. You are not the first person that Yahowah has sent to warn; this has happened in the past, and the people didn't listen. So, if you're reading it, you're seeing it, so what if it's Craig? It doesn't matter who it is so much as that you are here. That's the important part, that it's a fulfillment of Yahowah's work, not about us glorifying ourselves in some way.

YADA: But nonetheless, Yahowah is proud of and pleased with we're doing for His people. It beats the alternative.

1:51:12 "I listened but I did not understand, so I said Dear Sir," this is Daniel now, "what is the end result of these things? And he said, 'Go, choosing to walk through life, Daniel | My God is Judgmental. These words are sealed up, enclosed, signed, and stamped until the time of the final witnesses at the very end. Many will be purged of prevailing influences and cleansed as a result of choosing to examine religious and political constraints, independently purified as a result of avoiding societal pressures and thus they will be refined benefiting from having been tested and proven right. However, of those who will be condemned for acting improperly perpetuating religious and political crimes, none of them will understand and yet the ones with insight who are discerning demonstrating the capacity to be observant and circumspect, they will make the connections to understand and from the time the continuity abolished by overwhelming ferocity and force and the devastating and appalling abomination is appointed," This is when a physical manifestation, a person as a corporal manifestation of Satan, enters Jerusalem and proclaims himself as God and begins to plot the demise of Yisra'el. "there will be 1,290 days." That brings us right to the time that we're talking about with the fulfillment on October 7th, 2033. "Blessed and delightful are those who continue in this state and remain confident and certain continuing in close contact for the arrival of 1,335 days." There is a 45-day difference between those two numbers. Those 45 days is the very time of judgment, of the trials of those who will be dispatched into She'owl. But even more importantly, it's the time of recompense, the time when those who were abused by Muslims, for example, or the Roman Catholic church, Assyrians, Babylonians, or Nazis that the victims of those crimes, God's people, will witness those who perpetrated those crimes suffer for having to do so. The people who had no ability to stop their tormentors, and who wished their tormentors could taste what they were enduring will have that opportunity. So, that's what happens during those 45 days.

1:54:14 "Of your own free will choose to journey through life traveling to the Final Destination. Then you will find spiritual rest settling down and relaxing, allowed to be present and always remaining in your allotted place at the end of days." That's the conclusion Daniel 12:13. That is why we're here. That is what we're inviting you to be part of. That's what Dowd is calling you home to on behalf of your God, Yahowah.

When you look now at these words in light of what happened on October 7th and where we are in this timeline, it really does speak to who we are, what we're doing, why we're doing it, how much time we have left, who is going to benefit from this, who's going to pay a price because of it, what's going to happen next. It's all there for us. It's really powerful.

If you have a chance, read and share, particularly with Jews, God Damn Religion so they understand that their enemy is not Hamas, Islamic Jihad, the PLO, Hezbollah, the Ayatollah, Joe Biden. It's Islam. Islam has targeted Jews to annihilate them for 1,400 years; you should have figured it out a long time ago. There's no living with them and if you don't do something about them, they will kill you. So, it's important to understand that the Quran is the worst book ever written, that Allah | al-Lahu, is Satan, that Muhammad was not a prophet but instead a miserable pedophile, rapist, and mass murdering terrorist, and that that book is what inspired what happened on 10.7.

Thank you for listening. We look forward to being with you this time next week when we return to Mizmowr 2. Thank you for listening to this presentation of what was revealed to Daniel and who Myka'el is, since he was brought up in the very Quran I wanted to prove that al-Lahu is wrong.

Good night. May Yah bless.
