

Shabat Towrah Study - Dowd | David is the Son of Yahowah Year 5990 Yah 23 February 2024

Please Note: I have transcribed this to the best of my ability. Sound bites of parties speaking simultaneously and those inaudible to me have been deleted from the transcript. If I guessed at a word, it was followed by a ( )? A___ (blank line) indicates I could not understand the word or phrase and three dots ... indicate an interruption in the dialogue of one party by another. Thank you for your understanding. MaryKris.

Good evening and Happy Shabat to one and all. I want to begin our program by talking about Israel because there is such a clamor to establish a Fakeistanian State that I think it's important to have a little contract discussion.

0:18 When the Brits, after WWI, recognized that Chaim Weizmann had saved them, both through the discovery of synthetic rubber so that they could move their vehicles on tires instead of wooden spokes and then smokeless gunpowder, he was granted the one thing he asked for in return – the reestablishment of Israel as a nation (the Balfour Declaration). They agreed to do it; the Brits controlled the land because they had confiscated it, if you will, when they were battling the Ottoman Turks as part of WWI, and the Ottoman Turks lost. It's interesting that the Ottoman Turks went against Saudi Arabia in an attempt to destroy Mecca in the midst of that war.

1:21 As a result, the contract was breached. Muslim nations screamed bloody murder even though they were given fiefdoms like Saudi Arabia, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Jordan, all carved out at the same time with Israel essentially being the size of Israel today and most of Jordan. The Brits, who cannot be trusted and are for the most part antisemitic, reneged on the deal. The consequence of that was gross antisemitism and covetous greed to confiscate Jewish property and homes while Jews were being slaughtered throughout Europe. This was not just a Nazi problem; it ran throughout Europe, with the worst being the Ukrainians. As a result of that and of the Brits reneging on the Balfour Declaration, there was no Jewish State and no place for them to go. As they boarded planes and boats, America and most countries the world over shewed them away. They had no place for them to go and were therefore locked in Europe where they were hunted down and killed to the tune of six billion in concentration camps. It is a scar on Europe that it still doesn't own up to because Europe is now trying to destroy Israel with its love for Muslims and Progressives.

3:18 After the end of the War and the failure of the League of Nations, the United Nations was formed. One of the earliest forms of business was to form a State of Israel. The moment it was established, rather than accept the borders of 1948, Muslim nations almost as a whole decided to obliterate Jews and wipe Israel off the map. They attacked and Israel fought a two-year war against unbelievable odds for their survival and won. Fortunately for them, they were fighting a very stupid enemy; Islam dumbs people down. They are vicious and will fight to the death, they just aren't very bright. You can't be an intelligent Muslim. The Quran is the dumbest book ever written.

The moment they fought to prevent Israel from existing, they reneged on any chance they would have had to reestablish the original borders. It was over; they blew it. If somebody offers to sell you a property, and you say, no, I'm not going to accept those terms. Instead, I'm going to kill your sons and daughters and burn your house down and because you didn't allow me to do those things, you now need to give me what we originally discussed. That's insane.

5:17 That wasn't enough because in 1967 Muslim nations decided to achieve what they failed to achieve in 1948 and collectively attacked Israel and they lost. So, this idea that Saudi Arabia, the United States and other countries talk about creating a second state based upon 1967 boundaries, how do you do that when they didn't accept those boundaries but instead tried to destroy Israel. Then they did it again in 1974, then there were two Lebanon Wars, one against the PLO, the other against Hezbollah. There's been two intifadas.

6:17 Then there's this notion that Israel is an occupying force. What are they occupying? They sure as hell weren't occupying Gaza. They pulled out of Gaza and look what happened as a consequence. Even in Judea and Samaria the Oslo Accords say nothing against Israel building homes and land that they have purchased and own and there's nothing controversial about building a home no matter what the US State Department said and even today; it's a very positive thing to do. There is no agreement against Israel doing it. Israel is not occupying any of the areas that are supposedly controlled by the Palestinian Authority, which is nothing but the PLO, a terrorist organization. The line that is drawn isn't even a border as part of the Oslo Accords it's an Armistice Line that says you don't cross this line with the intent to kill people on one side or the other. Of course, the Fakeistanians erased that line when they launched the first two intifadas against Israel. So, there is no claim of any sort that anyone can raise.

7:45 For a land to be considered "occupied" there has to be a prior-established government and Sovereign with a government in that land that can show that this land was theirs. What's called the West Bank is called the West Bank because it was an unincorporated area that Jordan kept as a large outdoor prison, but they didn't bring it into Jordan, and they most certainly didn't accord the Fakeistanians who weren't even called Fakeistanians at the time, a state. No established state, no claim for occupation. The same thing is true in Gaza, which was an outdoor prison held by the Egyptians; not incorporated into Egypt, no rights for those people, no government for those people and therefore the claim couldn't even be made in Gaza if Israel decided to occupy it. So, there is no occupation, no apartheid, no colonization. None of these claims are true, and to carve a second state out of Israel that has too little land and is obviously indefensible already is far worse than what Neville Chamberlain did before the beginning of World War II. At the time that he gave The High Ground of Czechoslovakia to Adolf Hitler, the Nazis hadn't declared war or unleashed a war against anyone.

9:32 But now the people that the United States in Europe want to give a state to have terrorized Israel in all manner of ways for the very existence of Israel as a nation. In fact, their war against Israel goes back 1,400 years to when Muhammad moved into a Jewish town with 30,000 Jewish residents and systematically exiled the first group, stole their property, then hunted them down and terrorized, murdered and raped the women and enslaved the children. In the last community of Jews at Yahtrib he collectively lined everybody up, and one after another, cut off their heads, raped their women and enslaved their children. This war has been going on for 1,400 years.

10:30 The problem is not Hamas, Hezbollah, the PLO, Fatah, Iran; it is Islam. Islam is the most vicious, deadliest, most disgusting, immoral, irrational, ignorant religion ever conceived. I say that not as an opinion, not to be pejorative, but as a statement of provable fact.

10:59 As it relates to proving that fact, I announced a few weeks ago that God Damn Religion, Volume One, "Snake in the Desert" was written and then rewritten to become 150 pages longer because I removed all the softness of it. I'm deep enough into Islam now and have translated 76 surahs in their entirety to a majority of the 114 in the Quran, and as a result, I know every word of that damn religion and every word of the godforsaken Quran, which is the biggest piece of shit ever perpetrated on Humanity. It is absolutely disgusting. It's demonic, demeaning, enslaving, and ruthless. It supports everything from pedophilia to incest to rape to mass murder. Allah demands that Muslims fight and kill for him, and that war is open-ended to the end of time. This is not a doctrine that can live harmoniously with the world under any circumstances and for the stupid Progressives that are fanning the flames of Islam because they hate Jews and want to destroy Israel, wake up! You're on the wrong side of this one. But it's ubiquitous. They can't help themselves. It's almost a religious zeal that inspires them to lie, to promote an agenda that is so destructive and completely and totally untrue. It's exceedingly sad what we're watching around the world, but it is exactly what Yahowah told us was going to happen, and we're witnessing the last ten years of the world as we, I can't even say as we've known because it has changed so rapidly in the last five years that the world is not the world that we knew five years ago. Covid changed everything and then 10.7 doubled downed and changed it all again, particularly for Israel and Jews, and put us in a position we're headed to war, and so did the United States' belligerence against Russia and the Ukraine. Everything has changed, and it's going to be a very rapid demise.

13:58 I was told by Dee, based upon a young Jewish man that you've gotten to know and respect, that he was chatting with fellow Jews and a group of Jews out of Israel contacted him. Among the young Jews now, outside the brainwashed Haredim, there is a very pervasive bias against the rabbis. They know that the rabbis have no interest in the people except for their pocketbooks. For example, rabbis have a new scheme which is if you want to attend a synagogue, you are not free to do so. You must purchase a membership. So, the young people in Israel are now open to someone telling them how the rabbis have deceived them, and they are hungry to know what it is about Christianity that caused Christians to perpetrate the Holocaust, they're hungry to know what is it that drives Muslims to the point of insanity where they become murderous monsters.

15:31 So, this community reported that there have been places where they've seen people gathered around this book where this guy had the audacity to hold the rabbis accountable and to explain how they had misled Yisra'elites and at the same time had openly exposed and condemned Christianity and Islam and was calling God's people back home.

16:11 There is only one series of books, and one such person in the world. This is the hope, this why we write, this is Yahowah's responsibility, but as I've said, God Damn Religion One has been rewritten and it's now 800 pages, and I would strongly encourage every Covenant member to read it and be prepared to defend Jews against Islam and Progressives. God Damn Religion Two is 800 pages long and can be purchased at Amazon royalty free or can be read free at yadayah.com. I am currently a little over 400 pages into the rewrite of God Damn Religion Three and it's now 830 pages. So, the faster I run the further I get from the finish line, it seems. But the book is vastly more complete and condemning of Islam and it is stunningly evil.

17:43 I am a huge antagonist to Paul, Peter, and Christianity and have written four volumes completely destroying the myths of Christianity and its antisemitic diatribes. But Paul, who contradicts himself thousands of times, who was a horrible writer, an extremely mean and sadistic person who probably violated a thousand logical fallacies in his letters, was a freaking genius by comparison to Allah and Muhammad. These two clowns are not articulate, they are not lettered. Most sentences lack verbs, prepositions, nouns, and what's left is just garbage. So, no one should feel any sorrow for totally destroying the credibility of Islam. It is not only a declaration of war against all mankind, and it not only supports the deprivation of rights for women, but it also even deprives Muslims of their rights because every Muslim is a slave. There is no moderation in this religion; you're either a jihadist or Allah hates your guts and has committed to torture you forever.

19:38 I'll continue to make progress on God Damn Religion Three, and I hope that once I'm finished with the second surah, I do have some other long surahs (Surrotens, as I call them), that will go a little faster. I do have considerable translating to do, though, as we make our way through many of the early long surahs that were revealed during that period, so it'll take a while. I'd like to do the job as well as possible and so I'm producing my own translations based upon the materials and tools that are available to us rather than copying, pasting and blending translations.

20:34 Okay. Let's return to the coolest dude who ever lived. He's the most articulate man in human history, likely the brightest, flawed though, which is comforting since otherwise we would look pretty pale by comparison. He was given more responsibility than any one man could possibly manage, and he did crumble under the responsibility. He was very effective partnering with Yahowah at defending Israel. He fought and won 66 defensive battles protecting God's people. That's the difference between if you are with Yahowah or not with Him.

21:23 Some idiot today said that the difference in what's happening in Israel today in Gaza versus what Hamas did outside of Gaza in Israel is that their God is with them on the battlefield and that our God is not. That's partially true. Islam doesn't actually have a god. Allah is a former karuwb that Yahowah downgraded to a snake that slithered out of the Garden, yet he still managed to beguile more than half the world's population. They take him everywhere and actually believe that this wannabe god who has never done anything for anyone and is dumber than a reptile is there with them.

22:19 And, of course, the Jews can't take their god with them because they don't know their God. Not even 100th of one percent of Yahuwdaym know Yahowah. Yahowah would be delighted to partner with His people as He did with Dowd. They would win every battle and the people would be safe. But that requires Yisra'elites coming to know Him first.

22:45 So, this man that we're talking about that was so incredibly articulate was the ultimate Renaissance Man. A Renaissance Man is a fellow that can do it all. He was a poet, a lyricist, a spectacular author, a singer-songwriter, a world-class prophet, a military leader in the defense of his people, he was a king, he was anointed as the Messiah by Yahowah, he was the one person that God said, "He is My son; I am his Father." That's a pretty full resume, and it is a delight to be able to read what he wrote considering that I spend 12 to 14 hours a day poking holes in what al-Lahu, al-Lahi, al-Laha, Rahman, Raheem, and the rabbi of Islam, Muhammad had to say. So, turning back to where we were a couple of weeks ago, we reprise the first three statements before we move forward.

23:16 "For what reason (la mah – why, toward what end and for what purpose one should ask) do noisy and confused throngs of scheming and rebellious Gentiles gather together to conspire in open defiance (ragash gowym – do vociferous and disorderly crowds of restless religious, political, and militant ethnicities estranged from Yisra'el rise up vehemently to hastily agitate in fellowship with one another, with races attempting to be noticed and gain attention through their perceived and contrived plots, creating a disturbing commotion as part of an unrestrained cult of worshipers by hurriedly conceiving and promoting clandestine conspiracies)?

The people of these nations who are transformed while massing under an antiquated and unifying religious, political, and conspiratorial leader (wa la'om – these groups who associate and gather together under an individual who changes them in some way as a result of primitive and arcane concepts) choose to plot and speak (hagah – are driven away by their choices and utterances, having wrongly decided after selectively searching, muttering their musings aloud along with their imagined grievances and personal beliefs, all formed after giving considerable attention to isolated information to scheme to remove the people who are the focus of their complaint (qal imperfect jussive)) in vain, deluded in their fantasies (ryq – by promoting their unreal claims and worthless myths for absolutely no reason, revealing their unfulfilling and empty lives and dissatisfaction with their situation, these uninhibited scoundrels brandish idle plans, puffery and dreams, and attack to their disadvantage)." (Mizmowr 2:1)

24:55 It appears to me that Dowd was brought forward in time and has witnessed what happened on 10.7 and how the world responded to it and has written this indictment of Muslims, Progressives, Americans, Europeans and Middle Eastern. He's asking a question, "What is it with these confused, noisy, scheming and rebellious Gentiles who are conspiring and openly defiant? What is it with them?" Part of the answer to that question is why good leaders delegate. When

Dowd returns the condemnation and judgment of Muslims and Islam is something he's going to delegate; there is no reason whatsoever for him to waste his time. It's going on now six years that I've spent learning Islam so I can expose it condemn it on behalf of God's people. Fortunately, Dowd seems to have my number, and I am a compliant one when it comes to serving a man who I hold in such high esteem. I've already done this work, so I expect to be answering that question.

26:28 The people of these nations who are transformed while massing under an antiquated and unifying religious, political, and conspiratorial leader (wa la'om – these groups who associate and gather together under an individual who changes them in some way as a result of primitive and arcane concepts) choose to plot and speak (hagah – are driven away by their choices and utterances, having wrongly decided after selectively searching, muttering their musings aloud along with their imagined grievances and personal beliefs, all formed after giving considerable attention to isolated information to scheme to remove the people who are the focus of their complaint (qal imperfect jussive)) in vain, deluded in their fantasies (ryq – by promoting their unreal claims and worthless myths for absolutely no reason, revealing their unfulfilling and empty lives and dissatisfaction with their situation, these uninhibited scoundrels brandish idle plans, puffery and dreams, and attack to their disadvantage).” (Mizmowr 2:1)

26:42 It didn't take much for anyone who knows the Towrah to know that Muslims are wrong largely because rabbis, trying to make a buck, sold Talmud recitals of their repositioning of the Towrah's characters to Muhammad. It's mentioned in probably 30, 40, or 50 different surahs and verses where Muhammad and Allah are all bent out of shape because they actually charged for these recitals and then when Muhammad and Allah goofed them all up, they mocked them. Rabbis created the animosity that exists between Muslims and Jews to make a buck. I'm sure you've heard that before.

27:35 “The rulers (melek – the governmental leaders) of the Earth ('erets – the material realm and land) solely on their own initiative, continually set themselves up (yatsab – prominently present themselves without justification or authorization, take a stand and defend themselves, serving 45only themselves, thereby committing themselves (hitpael imperfect – consistently on their own initiative, without any outside influence, authorization, justification, or authority)).

Those who govern (rozen – those in command claiming primacy of authority and an esteemed status) lay a foundation to conspire and rebel (yasad – have from the beginning schemed to rise up through their association, establishing a base (nifal perfect – those who govern will not only conspire at some point in time, they will suffer the effects of their rebellion)) all together (yachad – in a united fashion) against ('al – because of, in front of, and over and above) Yahowah (Yahowah – an accurate transliteration of the name of 'elowah – God guided by His towrah – instructions regarding His hayah – existence and our shalowm – reconciliation) and (wa) against ('al – because of, in front of, and over and above) His Mashyach | Anointed (mashyach huw' – One demonstrably set apart for His service using an application of olive oil as a symbol of His Set-Apart Spirit to demonstrate His authorization and authority).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to Sing / Psalm 2:2)

28:04 Islam is war against Yahowah. There are places in the Quran that actually say the name Yahuwd, and while declaring the name Yahuwd, al-Lahi al-Laha at the same time says, "Yeah, I was the one who handed down the Torah, I was their God. I favored them, and then I didn't like them anymore, so I want to kill them." The moment you say the name "Yahuwd" you've acknowledged that Yahowah is their God. That's what ... How could you be so stupid? Nonetheless, they are. Islam is war against Yahowah and His people, but it's also against His Messiah because everything that exists in Islam is to prevent the return of Yahowah and Dowd. The only point that al-Lahi al-Lahu brings up with tremendous regularity, probably 400 or 500 times or more, which is a lot because there are only 114 surahs, is his Day of Doom/ Resurrection Day/Judgment Day where he claims that he's going to dispatch virtually everybody to the fires of hell. This is his way of precluding Yowm Kipurym. He wants to kill every Jew and enslave and deceive every other person so that there's nothing for Yahowah to come back to. If there aren't Jews in Israel expecting Yahowah's return on Yowm Kipurym, there's no reason to come back. It would mean that the prophecies of this celebration where Yahowah returns with the one whom they pierced and that they finally recognize him and weep for him as you would weep for an only child is Dowd. He was the Passover Lamb. And if there aren't a goodly number of wonderful Yahuwdym and Yisra'elites there to greet Yahowah and Dowd by name on Yowm Kipurym in year 6000 Yah, 6:22 p.m., October 2, 2033, in Jerusalem, just ten years from now, then there is no return and Yahowah will have failed for the first time in a prophecy.

31:02 Now He isn't going to fail. He's seen the future; we do prevail. But at this point it's mono Allah against Satan now. That's what it is. We are vying for the lives of God's people. You got an old guy on one side and a really old snake on the other and we win, and it's not a fair fight, but that's what we're doing this for. That's why I want everyone who is part of the Covenant to read these books and be prepared to defend Yisra'el because we are fighting over these next ten years to have a meaningful number of Yahuwdym celebrating the return of Yahowah. It'll make a better eternity for everyone, that's why we're doing this.

31:59 Christianity, of course, just simply replaced the Messiah and Son of God with a myth named "Jesus" that was a complete farce and Judaism began by foisting a false Messiah, bar Kokhba, on the Jewish people causing the Diaspora. So, all three religions, with Muhammad claiming to be the Messiah, better even than the Messiah, the last of the Messengers, Messiahs and Prophets to come, you've got three "Abrahamic religions" all committed to fight against Yahowah and His Messiah, none of which will even mention God's name. Dowd's assessment of where we are today is accurate and astute. You cannot say that we have not been warned.

33:08 "Let us choose of our own volition to break and pull off (nathaq – to snap off and tear away, being set free and purged, separated from by bursting free of (piel imperfect cohortative)) their bonds which trap and ensnare ('eth mowsrah hem – that which binds and immobilizes, their spinnerets and tethers, their fetters, shackles, and chains, and thus religious and political restraints, man's yokes which control and tame) and (wa) desire to cast off and throw away (shalak – reject, cast away and fling (hifil cohortative imperfect)) from us (min 'anachnuw) their twisted and interwoven threads which bind and immobilize ('aboth hem – their fibrous ropes and cordage, their intertwined web of silky and sticky spinnerets which fasten and tie, that which they can twist and pervert to harness and control).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:3)

33:29 Do you know the yoke that has been the most controlling and debilitating to Jews, the bonds which have trapped and snared more Jews than any other, keeping them from knowing Yahowah, keeping them out of the Covenant, keeping them out of Heaven is Judaism? Judaism and rabbis is the snare that has to be pulled off. It's Rabbinical Judaism; nothing has done more to harm God's people than Judaism. Just look back to the single worst day in Jewish history when Rabbi Akiba, the founder of Rabbinic Judaism, decided to challenge the myth of the Christian Messiah with a messiah of his own, bar Kokhba, and in so doing he brought Rome's wrath upon the province of Judea, and they destroyed it and renamed it (Palaestina)? They crucified hundreds of thousands of Jews, and those they didn't crucify they hauled off to the Diaspora as slaves. Rather than learning the lesson and apologizing for what they had done to their own people, the rabbis continued to make Jews so different and weird from everyone else by comparison that all manner of myths were perpetrated against God's people. They are the ones who hid Yahowah's name and plastered over His Towrah with their Talmud, which they have the audacity to call a Torah.

31:27 And look what they've done to the Haredim. I'm not certain that in the million Haredim that there's a collective IQ that would reach a 100; they are dumbed down to the point where they're hopeless. They're isolated and totally lorded over and controlled by the rabbis who all also control Jewish immigration. The twisted, interwoven thread that binds is the ___ that they display so aggressively.

36:15 “He who inhabits, establishing His dwelling place (yashab – He who sits and restores, lives and renews) in the heavens (ba ha shamaym – in the spiritual realm) holds them in contempt and will pulverize them (sachaq – mocks and scoffs at them, lacking any concern over rubbing His enemies away because He disrespects and disdains them, seeing them as a source of derision over whom He scoffs (qal imperfect)).

36:23 Dowd is speaking of Israel's greatest menace. Yahowah is not looking at the gowym. When the gowym came into Yisra'el Yahowah is going say, yeah, I'm going to hold you accountable; you can't do that to My people. But he is speaking of Yahowah in his Dwelling Place in the heavens holding someone in contempt; it's a Jew who has worked against God's people.

36:57 Yahowah (Yahowah – the proper pronunciation of the name of 'elowah – God as directed in His towrah – teaching regarding His hayah existence and our shalowm – restoration) ridicules their foreign behavior and mocks their unfamiliar language (la'ag la hem – scoffs and disparages their unintelligible stammering and holds them in derision (qal imperfect)).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:4)

37:03 What do they speak? Yiddish! Dowd had it figured, there's no question about it. For most of human history, God has ignored the political and religious mumblings of man. The lone exceptions have been when man's malfeasance either occurred in the Promised Land or when the suffering of His people became too great for them to bear. What we have not seen is Yahowah scoffing with disdain over the ridiculousness of Jewish behavior and unintelligible stammering. So, this is prophetic of the days. He is condemning the Muslims who have mutilated and massacred Jews and the rabbis who have played such a detrimental role in making that possible.

38:20 I rather enjoy laughing along with Father and Son, even of us being entertaining to one another, but none of us should ever want Yahowah or His Messiah to laugh at us, to disrespect, mock, or ridicule us, as the rabbis and Progressives have done with their ridiculous and religious portrayals. So now, after enduring millennia of this, Father and Son are seen responding to the world's religious leaders, especially those who are misleading and oppressing their people.

38:42 There are more Jews against God's people than rabbis. I read this week one of the most disgusting reports I've ever read. You know how Europe, the United States, and Progressives are condemning Israel for settler violence and how they're causing and excusing the Muslim response? Biden actually wrote this whole condemnation of Jews as settlers harassing needlessly the poor little Fakeistanians. It's almost universally a farce; it's not just a farce, it's a deliberate farce. What's happening is Progressive Jews are getting funding from the US State Department, from the European Union, and from Islamic organizations to deliberately harass settlers who are there tending sheep or orchards. They come with film crews that only begin filming when the settlers have no choice but to defend themselves against the harassment. In all the cases they bring their own film crews. They torment the Jews to the point where they have no choice but to respond, and then they record what happens, and then they distribute it directly to the US State Department, the European Union and to Islamic news sources, all with a fake narrative. It's Jews that are running these organizations; Jews condemning Jews and doing so in a Machiavellian approach where they know what they are doing is wrong. As a matter of fact, the narrative that Biden's Administration wrote against the settlers was written like the press release these Jewish organizations wrote in their fraud against Israel.

41:28 DEE: I believe this has happened before even in the time of the rebuilding of Jerusalem when they halted the building by conspiring against other Jews.

41:34 Yep. They are despicable. And, of course, the most outspoken Progressive in Israel is Lapid who is an advocate for giving the Fakeistanians a State, and that's really what they want. These organizations want Israel out of the land and the Muslims to occupy it. "From the river to the sea." Annihilation of Jews. The difference is, and if you're listening, if you're one of the about 50% of Jews that don't live in Israel, if you lose Israel (and you're on the cusp of losing Israel because you're not supporting Israel) you're back to exactly the same conditions you were in before the Second World War. You have no place to go. You've got one hope of surviving, Israel. So, when American Jewish Progressives side with mass murderers and mutilators, that says that God's people have fallen a great distance from where they should be, we are not, therefore, writing or calling to them or calling them home. If you are an overtly religious Jew or an overtly Progressive Jew, we have no interest in you. Just go away. God has no interest in you; we have no interest in you, you will not be part of the Covenant, and you're nothing but an annoyance. I would, however, warn you that by continuing to work against God's people you're in a position where rather than your soul simply dissipating to nothingness upon Dowd's and Yahowah's return, you're earning an eternal stay in She'owl. So, if you're not going to bother to work on behalf of God's people, of Yahowah, Dowd, Israel, and Yahuwdaym, and the Covenant family, then stand down and shut up. You've got ten years to live, and then it's over, but that's a hell of a lot better than enduring forever in the place of eternal separation.

44:16 It was early one morning at the base of Mount Choreb while Moseh was transliterating the Towrah with Yahowah that the recently liberated Children of Yisra'el were led astray by none other than 'Aharown. At his direction they fashioned the molten metal bull out of the jewelry received from the Egyptians and started "sachaq – laughing and playing" before it, in essence "contemptuously mocking" Yahowah and "disrespecting" Him. (Shemowth / Exodus 32:6) What they did, and what political and religious leaders are saying and doing today, is contemptible, even laughable.

45:10 Nonetheless, the idea of God being amused that our leaders actually believe that they have the authority or ability to speak for Him, and of Him toying with them, even laughing at them, is frankly uncomfortable. But if we were to put ourselves in their shoes, it is how we would react if we watched an imbecilic imam blow himself before his class of would-be terrorists. It is how I respond every time I see a Haredim walking around in their ridiculous black morning suits and wearing their ass hats. When I see a Muslim woman in a tent pleading for mercy, "Oh, I'm starving. They are murdering us; it's genocide," I laugh. Her life isn't worth living. She is nothing but a terrorist manufacturing facility. If you're stupid enough to wear a tent for a man that was a rapist and pedophile, you don't have three neurons that are functioning properly. That's just the truth of it and it is pathetic.

46:47 The reason I wrote and shared the Surrotten with you is that it's so disgusting that sometimes you just have to laugh at it and mock it. In fact, everyone that knew Muhammad personally mocked him and laughed at him. After Paul had written all his letters and then went to Rome, he didn't have a single person that believed him. Everyone that heard what he had to say from his own lips rejected him and mocked him. What is it that the contemporaries of these people saw that, of course, no one sees today? When Akiba came up with his false messiah, he even claims that he lost about two-thirds of his followers and the only way that he could respond at that point was to say, "Well, God plagued them," and then he had the audacity to say, "If you don't agree with my false messiah, I kill you. To heck with the Romans killing you, I'll kill you." The people who listened to these nimrods knew they were lying and mocked them. But one day it will be no laughing matter.

48:12 "Then ('az – at this time and place) He will communicate, expressing Himself (dabar – He will make statements, speaking (piel imperfect)) toward them ('el hem – in their direction and against them) showing His frustration and resentment (ba 'aph huw' – in His overt animosity and resolute anger) and in His burning indignation (ba charown huw' – demonstrating His intense hatred and resounding anger), will overwhelm and bewilder them (bahal hem – causing them to tremble by terrifying them (piel imperfect)).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:5)

48:29 The earth cannot be saved, humankind cannot be saved, the Covenant family cannot be saved unless Yahowah cleans house. Unless He eliminates the religious and overtly political there is no hope for this planet. We are on the cusp of self-annihilation and God's disgusted by it. He's disgusted at His people, at Judaism, Islam, Christianity, Progressives, Conspiratorialists; He's disgusted by them all. So, He Himself is going to convey that. You might say, "Well, you know, Muslims threaten to kill you and Yahowah's threatened to do these people in. What's the difference?" The difference is He's actually God and is going to do what He said, and the Snake is nothing but a snake and has to motivate others to kill for him. If he's actually God and He's going to act like God, then maybe you want to listen to Him rather than say, "Oh, that's the same." I'll guarantee you He won't be mutilating, raping, or screaming "Allahu Akbar", although He may say, "From the river to the sea My people will be free!"

50:02 This is prophetic of what we should expect in year 6000 Yah, in the Fall of 2033 on our Roman Pagan calendars. Here we find God holding those in leadership positions within society accountable. Before sending the religious and political authorities who misled His creation while claiming to represent Him off to their eternal incarceration, He is going to excoriate them. So much for the "judge not lest you be judged" theory.

50:33 We are reminded that those who extol the fear of God will come to tremble in fear before Him. Those who commend love without hate will come to experience the nature of righteous indignation. And for those who have worshiped a religious god, they will find the real One bewildering.

51:03 The first sentence of the first chapter of the first volume of Observations reads, "Hate is a virtue." This idea is in such discord with modern mentality that is likely shocking for most readers even though the argument on its behalf was rational and moral. Yahowah just said He hates, and I can tell you He is exceedingly just, compassionate, and virtuous. As a matter of fact, if you don't hate the things that He hates, then you are incapable of being a compassionate person. God not only hates, He is continually teaching us to express our righteous indignation toward those who harm His children and mislead His people. This is but one more example. And like Father, like Son.

52:15 If you don't hate what Muslims did on 10.7 and the fact that after doing it and being celebrated for mutilating and raping old women and young children and gang raping little girls, mutilating them, torturing them, kidnapping them, if you don't hate Islam for doing this then you're incapable of being moral, and you're incapable of being rational, just, or compassionate if you don't condemn these Muslims for going back to parade and then telling the women who gave birth to and raised terrorists and children that will be terrorists to stay put so that you get killed while we hide under your skirts because the world will condemn Israel instead of us for what we have done. If a person doesn't want to move out of the way and wants to keep women and children as cover for terrorist tunnels, terrorist headquarters, terrorist rocket launchers, terrorist armories, then they're not an innocent civilian; they're someone that should pay the price for what happened on 10.7. We have to learn what to hate. Islam is deserving of our hate and if you can't learn to hate Islam for the right reasons then you're out of your mind.

54:10 Now hating Islam doesn't mean picking up a gun and killing someone like they do. But if you knew Islam like I know Islam, and you wielded words wisely and openly exposed and condemned it along with the myth of the Fakeistanians, the history of Islam and what it has done to Jews, then you make it impossible for them to continue to perpetrate terror. They are not welcome anywhere. You would quarantine them just as you would any plague and Islamic terrorism would be over. Words wielded wisely can make the difference here. That's what I'm encouraging, but you can't do that unless you shed your ignorance. You must know the truth. I think it's a fool's folly to expose and condemn Islam or Progressives for their support of Muslims and against Israel unless you first come to know Yahowah and become part of His Covenant family because at that point you not only have God on your side, you not only have God aiding and abetting your ability to protect His people, you have nothing to lose and everything gain; you are vastly more effective.

55:52 The reason why the rewrite of Prophet of Doom as God Damn Religion is three to four times longer is because I know Yahowah and His Towrah now, I know when Muslims, Allah and Muhammad are lying and I'm able to hold them accountable to a degree that wasn't possible before, and this is what I would like to encourage every Covenant family member to do, to be able to expose and condemn religion and politics particularly, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Progressive politics, and conspiracies because they are the most lethal to God's people while at the same time articulating Yahowah's plan of reconciliation, His timeline, the nature of His Covenant, the conditions to participate, what the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey actually represent and what they provide to God's family, when they have and will occur and how Dowd fulfilled them so that they know who Father and Son are, and who is returning. This is our job. We only have less than ten years left. Less than ten years left to invest in doing something that is more important to God than anything in the history of humankind.

57:26 For us the fulfillment of Chag Matsah: Pesach, Matsah and Bikuwrym in year 4000 Yah are the three most important days in human existence but not for God. The most important days for God are Taruw'ah, Kipurym and Sukah when we, with His support, articulate this message based on Taruw'ah and He returns with Dowd to reconcile His relationship with a remnant of His people on Kipurym, the Day of Reconciliations so that He can camp out with His family here on Earth for a thousand years before we enter eternity in the seventh dimension. Ten years to change forever. Just because God has said He has seen the result and is pleased with it doesn't mean that the result is predestined. We still have to do our part to make it happen. He saw that result because of what we did and the more of us that engage to do this the greater that result is going to be. There's nothing you can do with your life that is more important.

59:03 What follows could be in Yahowah's voice, but I think it reads more naturally to make the transition where Dowd announces it. So, while all of 2:6 could reflect God speaking through Dowd to us, since the next sentence is unquestionably in Dowd's voice, and the citation is clearly from Yahowah, this is likely Dowd's intent.

59:25 Now, you might say, what's the big deal? He's a prophet, so he's speaking for Yahowah. They are Father and Son and share the same agenda. God is exceedingly unique in the way that He works, even with the most important person who ever lived, Dowd. Dowd got to choose what he would do. He made mistakes, and he did things that were brilliant. God empowered, enabled and enlightened him, fired him, but still, He wanted Dowd's personality and attributes to come through this message because God found that it is much more effective for Him to speak through individuals like Dowd than it is for Him to boom His voice out to the people and scare them to death. So, this is the message of what happened to the children of Yisra'el when they said we don't want to hear that voice, we don't see that fire, we don't want to hear it again. Moseh, why don't you filter it for us. And God said okay, I'm good with that, I understand. I'm not here to intimidate you, I'm not here to make it impossible for you to choose not Me and quite frankly, I like working with people so if I have a chance to communicate with somebody I love working with like, Moseh, Yasha'yah, or Dowd, so much the better.

1:01:11 "I, myself, have offered leadership (wa 'any nasak – and I have exercised my authority by being a capable leader and pouring forth guidance (qal perfect)) providing counsel through my governance (melek 'any – providing my advice to consider and respond to as the authorized ruler and designated authority, through my kingship to ponder) upon ('al – alongside) Tsyown | the Signs Posted Along the Way (Tsyown – the instruction on the signposts identifying the proper direction and marking the place where the aspirations of the Covenant are known), my Set-Apart Mountain (har qodesh 'any)."
(Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:6)

1:01:25 Yahowah has offered leadership. He has engaged. He liberated the children of Israel from Egypt, He made it possible for Dowd to fulfill Chag Matsah, He met with 'Abraham to enable the conditions and the benefits of the Covenant. So, God has offered His leadership, but He prefers to have those He loves and has empowered serve as leaders. So, I think this is Dowd. He says, "I, myself, have offered leadership" The next word is melek "serving as King, but melek also means "I provided counsel through my governance." You might ask is Tsyown Dowd's or Yahowah's? I would say yes. "the Signs Posted Along the Way" reads "Dowd was here." This is what he did and I'm coming back here. Please join Me here. And har qodesh 'any – sure it's Dowd's Set-Apart Mountain and it's Yahowah's Set-Apart Mountain. But it's our Set-Apart Mountain too. This is our home. Our home will be on Mowryah. The two scars that are on it now will be obliterated. I'm sure there's a lot of people standing in line to obliterate them. I have many times encouraged Israel to use the obliteration of the Dome of the Rock and Al-Asqa mosque to free their captives and I would even now. But on October 7th I would have said our captives are returned, to the person, unharmed and we get the heads of Hamas delivered to us within 24 hours or we will raze the Al-Asqa mosque and if you think we're kidding then the following day we will raze the Dome of the Rock; we will obliterate them. They are an embarrassment to you, to us and to everyone else.

1:04:09 The integration of Dowd into the lyrics of his own Psalm at this point is important because he is telling those living today that he has provided guidance in this regard that we'd be wise to consider what he has to say. He's also providing leadership; he's returning as Mashyach and King. He is going to have God's designated authority to provide counsel for humankind to ponder. He's going to be our Shepherd. And there is no question that Dowd took this role seriously, pouring out God's guidance through every word he wrote both in the Mizmowr and Mashal. To a great extent, it is Dowd's lyrics which were inscribed on the signs posted upon Mount Tsyown.

1:05:01 Mount Zion by the way is not this mountain that was allegedly called out by Josephus on the far west side of what is the limits of Jerusalem that then descends down to the Mediterranean Sea. No. Tsyown is the ridge line of Mount Mowryah, that is where it is. Tsyown runs between where Dowd's home was and where Yahowah's Covenant home was and will be. Tsyown means "Signs Posted along the Way." For those who are anti-Zionists you are anti-Yahowah, anti-Messiah, anti-Dowd. They are His signs.

1:05:59 Two of the most interesting signs, of course, that are posted are the 22nd and 88th Mizmowrs which describe in first person Dowd's fulfillment of Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym. Then the 19th and 119th Mizmowrs are both odes to the Towrah and speak of the importance of it.

1:06:27 One of my favorites is the 91st Mizmowr. It is the reason I would encourage anyone who is going to speak on behalf of Israel and against Islam, Progressives and Conspiratorialists to become a member of the Covenant first because quite frankly once you're part of the Covenant you have Yahowah's protection. That's what the 91st promises.

1:06:56 There may be some who think it is unseemly for Dowd to express himself in this way, as there is no sense of humility in these words; he's saying this is my mountain and I'm providing the leadership. But it's exactly as it ought to be. Pridefully and accurately taking credit for his role in bringing man into the Covenant through the Towrah he has earned this very unique place with God. To have fulfilled Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym, to have served as the Messiah and as the Ultimate Prophet, to return as the King of Yisra'el, to be the one who will anoint the Mercy Seat of the Ark of the Covenant to reconcile the relationship on Kipurym, those are extraordinary things. If Dowd didn't speak of them, he would be doing a disservice to both his Father and his people.

1:07:56 In a minuscule comparison there are many hundreds of references to the work that we are doing today where we are called out by name and that Yahowah explains what specifically he is doing on behalf of His people through us. If I were to choose to say it is uncomfortable for me to acknowledge these things because anonymity is so much easier, so much less responsibility, I wouldn't be sitting in this chair 14 hours a day seven days a week doing this if I was anonymous. I'd play golf, occasionally go to the beach, walk my dog, or have a lovely chat with my wife. But as it is, three meals a day she sets on my desk so I don't even have to leave it. I wouldn't be that devoted if Yahowah hadn't made a big deal of saying I need you to do this for me, I want you to do this for me. So, Dowd volunteered to do the things that he did, and it would have been a disgrace and such a diminishment of what he had achieved if he didn't talk about it. The same thing is true, although admittedly a billion times less important, but it's important for the moment, it's important to Dowd and to Yahowah. So, we ought not run from acknowledging what is true.

1:09:59 I have come to love Yahowah's Son and appreciate Yahowah's love for His Son, recognizing that Dowd not only wrote the lyrics to observe and celebrate the Towrah, but that his life exemplifies the Towrah's purpose.

Craig excuses himself for a few minutes, and Dee and Kirk chat.

1:11:59 Craig returns and chats briefly with Dee.

1:12:11 DEE: I shared the Observations link on my Shamar Towrah site, and you can check it out. It's Observations Volume 2 Chapter 2, "Signs Along the Way."

1:13:00 There's really very few things as important to God's people than knowing that Dowd/ David is the Messiah, that he is the Son of God, he is the returning King, that he fulfilled Pesach and Matsah leading to Bikuwrym. That means that the Romans crucified him, Dowd, on Passover taking the life of his basar | physical body. Then Yahowah allowed his soul to carry the guilt of every Covenant member, God's people, into She'owl and deposit all our guilt there so that we look perfect in God's eyes; we have no evidence against us. He did that on Matsah and as a result he was the Firstborn of firstborn children which is what Bikuwrym means. Then Seven Sevens the Promise of Seven, Shabuwa'ah, which is also the day the Towrah was revealed, he became the first of many to be empowered, enriched, emancipated, and enlightened by God which is the promise of Shabuwa'ah. Dowd did these things for us, and it is Dowd who is the subject of Taruwa'ah. There is not Rosh Hashanah; it is Taruwa'ah. Taruwa'ah means "to herald not only a warning that religion and politics lead to death but also to share this very message of what Dowd has done and is doing for God's people because when you understand how he fulfilled each of the seven Mow'ed Miqra'ey and that he is returning on Pesach in year 6000 Yah which is October 2nd in that year; Maimonides' dating system was asinine, so, Jews have been misled. If you want to see an accurate timeline, go to yada.yah.com, Dee was instrumental in putting it together, and you will see under Resources the first item is the timeline. It will tell you exactly where we are on it and when everything of importance happened. It's a perfect timeline in the sense of every major event happened exactly as God said it would.

1:16:04 So, these Signs Along the Way all proclaim that Dowd has done and will continue to do these things for us and that he then will be our leader, our Shepherd and our King going forward into Sukah. And again, this is because God is God. He didn't do all this to be king Himself. He did all this to elevate those who chose to love Him and become part of His family. So, Dowd is His favorite Son. Dowd is King and that is just the way that God works. If you don't like Dowd, you aren't going to like heaven.

1:16:50 DEE: I think it's Mizmowr 18 that tells us why it's Dowd – that he knows Yahowah best.

1:16:56 CRAIG: Yes, it's true. Plain and simple. He does know Yahowah best. But there are other reasons Yahowah chose Dowd. He says "My reasons are different than man's reasons," and the more that you study you realize that the reasons that Yah chose to do all these things through Dowd is that he was fabulously brilliant. We think our way to God. He was exceedingly articulate because the written word conveying in writing what God intends is essential. He was courageous. God's not looking for marshmallows. He likes bold and courageous people. He was passionate, dedicated, and fully cerebral but also emotional, and devoted to the defense of God's people. So, there were traits that Dowd had. When it says, "he was a person after his own heart," he's not saying that that he was pulling on the heartstrings in terms of emotions. The heart was the seed of judgment. That means that Dowd's thinking was very much like God's thinking. If you read Dowd's lyrics, he was exceedingly judgmental which is something that God appreciates. He knew what to hate and how to hate and who, what, and how to love.

1:18:43 So, while we recognize that Dowd is Yah's Chosen One that is not to shortchange the rest of us. As Yahowah's most Beloved Child, as the chosen leader of His people reflecting his Father's nature Dowd will freely share with the rest of the family what has been given to him. Moreover, while the Earth is big and the universe even bigger, they are infinitely smaller than our future home in the seventh dimension. There's lots of room to move around. Yahowah is consistent which means if He's doing these things with and through Dowd, He will do these things with and through the rest of his children. You can play as big a leadership role or as little a leadership role as you want in eternity. If you make yourself available God will put you to work.

1:19:52 There was a period where I was thinking, okay, I get to retire in ten years and won't that be fun. I'm just going to slink off with my wife and some friends and hang out on this little Island that I live on now for a full year just vegging and relaxing without any of the creeps that are here now. But that's not Yah's style. The joy is being engaged with Yah. So, if Yah, Dowd or his people want something done, we're just going to do it. I don't know what that's all going to be, but I know that God likes working through people who like working with Him and working with God is the most fun you can have, the most rewarding thing you can do with your time even if you have an unlimited amount of time, or if you have just ten years as we do now. You are building a future not only for yourself, but for others.

1:21:07 I've said this many times, good mental health, genuine happiness, contentment and satisfaction is typically the result of living for something beyond yourself, devoting yourself to something that is genuinely worthy because if you're focused just on yourself and all the aches and pains, I can tell you about my thousand aches and pains, but why bother other than to let you know I'm like everybody else that God works with; I'm a flawed individual with and I have heartaches. But my heartaches have so little effect on what I do, how I think, feel and act because my focus is on bringing God's people home and serving Yahowah and Dowd so that they are delighted with the family reunion. In that there's just this feeling of satisfaction and contentment. What better thing can you do with your time? So, I recommend that to everyone.

1:22:23 If you're feeling down and like life has dealt you a bad blow, I've been there. Before I began this project, I was publicly crucified in a cover story in a national magazine with nothing but lies. I know what it's like to be a worm on a hot road and run over by every passerby. There were a couple months where I didn't think life was worth living. And then along came this opportunity, and now I have the most fulfilling, rewarding, genuinely happy life that a person could possibly have. So, it's all about getting out of yourself and living for something bigger than we are individually. Dowd and Moseh are perfect examples.

1:23:24 When we come to appreciate the subtleties of the Messiah's earliest revelations, Mizmowrs One, Two, Three, Four, these early ones, we recognize that he was speaking of fulfilling the Mow'edym. When discussing the leadership and the council he offered on Tsyown, that's where he fulfilled them. Everything leads to this conclusion and really, nothing leads away from it particularly as we make our way all the way through about the 30th Mizmowr.

1:24:06 Now, there's a reason why there were more Psalm Scrolls than anything else in the caves above Qumran. The largest scroll, the Great Psalm Scroll is, I think, is some 80-feet long and three to four feet tall, and it is the most divergent from the Masoretic text. I had always thought that Yasha'yah was the most divergent, but it's Dowd's Psalms. The rabbis don't like him very much, so they've done more to change his Mizmowr than anything else. That's really a bad play. You are going to generate less ire from the Almighty if you attack Him personally than if you besmirch the reputation and the life of His Son. Keep that in mind.

1:25:13 I appreciate the way Dowd wrote this introduction. He realizes that in spite of all of his flaws, the characteristics which endeared him to Yahowah were his intellect, passion, courage, confidence, (Yahowah loves confidence) and character. His capacity to reason, to be judgmental, enabled him to understand and then brilliantly write the insights he derived from the Towrah and is what distinguished him. God's not looking for faith or belief, and He's certainly not looking to be worshiped. He's hoping that we come to know and by making the right connections and being judgmental we come to understand, and for those who understand, His goal is for us to teach others. That is our life. These attributes earned Dowd a special place, one which is so spectacular, Dowd wants us to know that it was by Father and Son working together that so much was accomplished.

1:26:35 "I will choose to account for, proclaiming in writing (saphar – I will, of my own freewill, record and recount, putting the decree into effect by informing through written communication and documentation (piel imperfect cohortative)) the decree and prescription for living (choq – the clearly written announcement on that which cuts us into the relationship) of the Almighty ('el – of God) which Yahowah (Yahowah – an accurate transliteration of the name of 'elowah – God guided by His towrah – instructions regarding His hayah – existence and our shalowm – reconciliation) said ('amar – declared (qal perfect)) to me ('el 'any – of me and regarding me), 'You are My Son (ben 'any 'atah). This day (ha yowm – at this time and in the light of day) I ('any) bring you forth as your Father (yalad 'atah – am responsible for you as a father gives birth to and raises a child such that they grow, bearing and assisting you).' (Mizmowr 2:7)

1:27:10 I get irritated when rabbis say there is no Son of God, there's no term "Son of God" anywhere. That would be interspecies, it's prohibited by God. You've got no clue who Yahowah is, what the Covenant is about, what the relationship that Yahowah formed with this man, and you've got no clue that what he said to Dowd, 'You are My Son (ben 'any 'atah). This day (ha yowm – at this time and in the light of day) I ('any) bring you forth as your Father,' that He will say to every Covenant member, although there'll be many daughters in there too. That's what our Father is going to say to us: you are My son, you are My daughter. This day I bring you forth as your Father. Dowd was just the first. Dowd was just the best. He was the Exemplar. He's the one who made it possible for God to say it to the rest of us because he volunteered to fulfill Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym opening the doorway to eternal life, perfecting us so that we could be adopted into God's family. That's the message. There is a Son of God. God is the Father of Dowd, and Dowd is not bashful in saying so.

1:28:54 "I will choose to account for, proclaiming in writing – which he did here in Mizmowr 2:7- (saphar – I will, of my own freewill, record and recount, putting the decree into effect by informing through written communication and documentation (piel imperfect cohortative the decree and prescription for living (choq – the clearly written announcement on that which cuts us into the relationship - because he made it possible by fulfilling with Yahowah Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym) of the Almighty ('el – of God) which Yahowah (Yahowah – an accurate transliteration of the name of 'elowah – God guided by His towrah – instructions regarding His hayah – existence and our shalowm – reconciliation) said ('amar – declared (qal perfect)) to me ('el 'any – of me and regarding me), 'You are My Son (ben 'any 'atah). This day (ha yowm – at this time and in the light of day) I ('any) bring you forth as your Father (yalad 'atah – am responsible for you as a father gives birth to and raises a child such that they grow, bearing and assisting you).' (Mizmowr 2:7)

1:29:26 Do you know what day that was? Bikuwrym in year 4000 Yah. "I bring you forth as your Father." Dowd was called the Bakowr | the Firstborn of Yahowah because he fulfilled Bikuwrym. And this works the same for us. We don't have to endure what he endured to fulfill Pesach and Matsah. He volunteered to suffer the two most hellacious 24-hour periods in human history because there's an eternity to celebrate what he has done for us. While I can't imagine what he experienced to fulfill those two days I can see the pride in both Father and Son's eyes to have this said. He earned it. He deserves our respect, and we can capitalize on it. The worst thing we could possibly do is to disrespect this gift. For him to have done this, for Yahowah to have said it, and for people to say nah, I'm not buying that Passover is anything more than what was celebrated in Egypt and we're going to turn Passover into a 7-Day holiday because we really don't like the intent of Matsah anyway. It sounds like God is anti-religious and He's trying to scrub the religion out of people. Well, that's true; He is. It defines who Dowd is in Yahowah's overall plans, what he can do for us, what our God will do for us.

1:31:17 Feel free to ask questions about this, seeking to learn the answers because literally out of Me/me and from Me/me (sha'al min 'any – of your own freewill choose to inquire and request from Me/me, questioning why (qal imperative)) there will be an inherited share of the land of the Gentile nations that will be given to you and unto successive generations (gowym nachalah 'atah – part of your inherited property and heritage will come from places that are not part of Yisra'el), even unto (wa) the distant reaches of the Earth, perhaps even the entire material realm ('ephes 'erets – the ends of the Earth and the finality of the region) becoming your property ('achuzah 'atah – a gift to you, a place which belongs to you).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:8)

1:31:47 This happens when he returns and the only ones left are Yahowah's Covenant family and at that point we inherit the earth because of what Father and Son did for us. “...even unto (wa) the distant reaches of the Earth, perhaps even the entire material realm – which would be the universe ('ephes 'erets – the ends of the Earth and the finality of the region) becoming your property ('achuzah 'atah – a gift to you, a place which belongs to you).” (Mizmowr / Lyrics to be Sung / Psalm 2:8).

1:32:16 God's in a position to give it to us. It's all His. He created the universe; it's registered under His name. And He is saying that because of what Dowd and He accomplished together by fulfilling Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym, and will accomplish through Kipurym, that He is in a position to give His children this magnificent inheritance and we as God children inherit the universe. That's why I said it's our home on Tsyown too. It's our universe too. God didn't create it to covet it or to keep it; He created it to give it away. I just love this!

1:33:20 Feel free to ask questions about this, seeking to learn the answers because literally out of Me/me and from Me/me (sha'al min 'any – of your own freewill choose to inquire and request from Me/me, questioning why (qal imperative)) there will be an inherited share of the land of the Gentile nations that will be given to you and unto successive generations (gowym nachalah 'atah – part of your inherited property and heritage will come from places that are not part of Yisra'el), even unto (wa) the distant reaches of the Earth.”

1:33:37 And this occurs beginning on Yowm Kipurym in year 6000 Yah, October 2nd at 6:22 p.m., as the sun sets in Jerusalem in year 2033, which is the 120th celebration of the Yowbel from the time 'Adam and Chawah were exiled from Eden and the entire earth will be returned to those conditions. So, this is a return to Eden so that 5 days later we can camp out together in this Garden on Earth.

1:34:18 I'm hoping there will be some 70,000 Yahuwdym and Gowym who will be awaiting Yahowah's return, looking up and watching God return with the one who was pierced for our benefit watching him anoint the Mercy Seat of the Ark of the Covenant, watching Yahowah's eyes as He looks with such pride on His Son, and is so thrilled to have all the annoyance gone and this wonderful family gathered to receive Him. No more Waters of Marybah, no more golden calves, no more religions, conspiracies or politics; we all settle down and live together as God originally intended. But this time we don't have the limits of physical bodies. This time we are light energy and can explore every nuance of this universe all of which is off limits to us as physical beings, all of which is immediately accessible as energy-based beings. Isn't it marvelous what our Shepherd has done for his sheep!

1:35:50 Dowd wrote the 2nd Mizmowr | Psalm, so this was said of him and by him. From God's perspective, and that is the only one which matters in this regard, Dowd is Yahowah's Son; Yahowah is Dowd's Father. And if you don't think so, you are calling God a liar. And as Yahowah's most beloved, His firstborn, Dowd | David will be receiving the lion's share of his Father's inheritance. It's a lovely way to reward His Son who did so much for His people.

1:36:43 Quite frankly, possessions don't mean much to me. From a different point of view I always said when I owned fast airplanes and big boats that my friends who had access to ride with me on these fast airplanes and big boats were in a much better position than I was because they didn't have to pay for them, or learn to take care of them, or be burdened by their cost, that it is much better to have a friend that has really cool stuff. Well, we've got a friend that's got really, really cool stuff and we're actually related to him. So, I would much prefer that Dowd keeps control of much of the universe and we just get to go visit these things and enjoy them because that's all joy without responsibility; been there, done that.

1:37:46 That's why I can tell you that before we read these many hundreds of prophecies speaking of the role that we're engaged in and all the various titles and names that Yahowah uses to describe what we're doing; I was much happier as Yada with only the opportunity but no responsibility. That's the ultimate cool spot to be in. So, sometimes somebody needs to be responsible; Dowd is the responsible party. Moseh was a responsible party and he never complained. It was a wonderful job and he was responsible. And that's what we're looking forward to with Dowd as we move forward.

1:38:46 It's not just that Yahowah is returning, but He is returning to establish the Kingdom of Dowd that is not a democracy. Democracy is a misunderstood concept that is not in anyone's interest. We will have free will, but the best thing of all is to have free will and a benevolent leader. It goes far beyond and deeper than this because it was Yahowah's Bakowr | Firstborn who could properly experience the Miqra' of Bikuwrym following his fulfillment of Pesach and Matsah. Collectively, these Mow'edym provide Yahowah's prescription for living. And in this case, by serving as the sacrificial soul during Chag Matsah, Dowd was in a position to offer his people their inheritance. And this is why I think, while Me could be Yahowah speaking, I think it's much more likely that the me is Dowd, and I think that's why Yahowah wanted him to convey it that way, so I want you to be aware that Yahowah is recognizing His Son. You can tell by the tone of Yahowah's voice, "This is My Son and I'm bringing him forth this day as his Father." Yahowah is proud of what Dowd volunteered to do. He's proud of His Son, and He should be. More of us should be.

1:40:42 As is the case elsewhere, in the 2nd Mizmowr | Psalm, we find irrefutable proof that Dowd | David is the Son of God and Yahowah's Messiah, as both were stated in the Psalm. And just as it is presented in Yasha'yah | Isaiah 9, it is Yahowah who is offering His Son to us. Further, when we look back to the previous statement, "this day" is directed toward what occurred when Dowd led the way home on Tsyown as he fulfilled these first three Miqra'ey, four counting Shabuw'ah in year 4000 Yah.

1:41:31 In fact, the very reason Yahowah made this declaration this way, saying that "I will bring you forth as your Father, assisting you," is so that we would come to appreciate how these Psalms and Isaiah's | Yasha'yah's prophecies work hand-in-glove. One explains the other, working together to frame the perfect picture.

1:41:55 So how, with this written so clearly, with Dowd being the Son of God and the Messiah lyriced right here in the Second Mizmowr where Dowd is explaining how important what he has done is to our salvation, were Christians able and willing to fool so many people by transferring these titles and accolades to a myth and depriving Dowd of the credit for what he has done? Depriving him of the credit is a big deal because it deprives billions of the benefit. If you don't know what Dowd did you can't benefit from what he did and if somebody tells you it was this myth and misnomer that was actually this person then you can't capitalize on what Dowd did and even in the myth there's no fulfillment of Pesach, Matsah, and Bikuwrym. Dowd was written out, the Miqra'ey were written out, Yahowah was written out, the Covenant was written out, salvation was written out in Christianity.

1:43:21 The same thing occurred in Judaism. Dowd as the Messiah was written out. They're looking for an unnamed Messiah still. There's no one in Judaism that's expecting Dowd to return as king; they've written him out of their lives, and by doing so they've written salvation out of their lives.

1:43:53 The very reason that this picture was put together, this proclamation was made was so that we could confidently trust everything Dowd | David has to say about Yahowah, His Towrah and Covenant, about Yahuwdah, Yisra'el, and most especially the Miqra'ey. He knows what it means to be observant and understand what God is offering and expects in return. Further, when we understand the kind of familial relationship Yah and Dowd experienced and exemplified, we now know that we, too, can come to enjoy the same kind of Father/child bond Dowd established with God.

1:44:59 To know Dowd is to love him; to know Yahowah is to love Him, and it behooves us to understand their love affair and what it was about Dowd that made him so special: who he was, what his attributes were, what his failings were, what he achieved. I don't think there's anyone in 3,000 years, other than what we have learned, have written, and are sharing that recognizes that Dowd is the Messiah and the Son of God who fulfilled the first four Mow'ed Miqra'ey; Pesach, Matsah, Bikuwrym, and Shabuw'ah, and how and why he did so and that Taruw'ah is all about heralding his return which will be to fulfill Yowm Kipurym so that he becomes the King of Sukah. I don't think you're going to find that anywhere else in the world. This is the essential message for God's people. This is what God is calling you home to, so please listen.

Thank you, Kirk and Dee, for all you are doing and for being part of this program and thank you everyone in the Covenant Family for listening. I hope this message also resonates with Yisra'el and I hope that there are more Yisra'elites that purchase our royalty-free books through Amazon. I'm not trying to sell you anything. They are large, beautiful books, and each volume is 800 pages long. God Damn Religion 1 is called "Snake," God Damn Religion 2 is called "Satanic." They are powerful. But they're not the only ones. Read An Introduction to God, particularly Volume 1. Read the first five volumes of Yada Yahowah so you know exactly what God is offering and expecting in return. You'll find such Joy if you read Observations and such purpose if you read Coming Home. Sometimes it's important to know what's not true so that you can differentiate and that's why we wrote the books on Babel to disprove so much of Daniel, although some of it is accurate. For example, Dowd is Gabriel, and the reputation of Ezekiel is Satan's autobiography. These things are important. It's also important to be able to understand why Christianity is completely wrong by reading Questioning Paul.

So, there's a lot there. I think there will be 33 books by the time we finish the four volumes of God Damn Religion. It's like a lifetime, all done in 23 years by the time God's finished and then it's on to complete Coming Home 3 and hopefully Coming Home 4. Then we get the great joy of joining a wonderful remnant of Yisra'el as we look up to Yahowah and His Son as they return to Jerusalem in less than ten years from now.

I did see a full moon, so we are getting close to Pesach and Matsah, and we look forward to celebrating those days with you.

May God bless, good night, and be at peace with your God, Yisra'el.
